Senator Duties:

How to be an impactful Senator

DUTIES

Attend Senate Meetings	Attend Senate meetings as frequently as possible; at minimum two times per quarter. GPSS Senate meetings are at 5:30 pm in HUB 334.
Read the information	Please read all the emails, agendas, minutes, and resolution drafts sent from GPSS. Also know the GPSS Bylaws and Constitution.
Represent your program	Share information with your constituents via email or postings, and provide opportunities for your constituents to share issues with you.
Participate on a committee	Sit on a GPSS committee, or be a GPSS liaison on a University committee. Committees are a great opportunity to put your skills to work, and represent your constituents.
Write a resolution	Write a resolution on an important issue to your constituents, and the graduate and professional student body at-large.
Come to Office Hours + Attend GPSS events	Come to Office Hours to learn more information, to ask questions, and to connect with your GPSS Officers! Attending GPSS programming and social events also helps build and strengthen the GPSS community.

GPSS GRADUATE & PROFESSIONAL STUDENT SENATE