Then board the American Queen, the largest and most opulent riverboat in the world, at Clarksville, a town dotted with intriguing museums and attractions. Delve into captivating Civil War history at Dover’s Fort Donelson National Battlefield and Cemetery, and admire stately mansions in Savannah’s historic district. Explore the delightful 19th-century architecture, shops, and eateries of Paducah, a lovely city at the confluence of the Ohio and Tennessee Rivers. Before concluding your adventure in Memphis, the “Home of the Blues,” witness colorful local artifacts on display at the New Madrid Historical Museum and the magnificent Hunter-Dawson house.

Discover stunning landscapes, storied towns, and the tranquility of river cruising aboard the American Queen. Your journey includes delicious cuisine, outstanding country and blues performances, and fascinating shore excursions.
