On Day 5 we visit Ngorongoro Crater, home to both Maasai tribespeople and a high concentration of wildlife – the only such place on Earth.

Day 1: Depart U.S. for Arusha, Tanzania

Day 2: Arrive Arusha Upon arrival after midnight, we transfer directly to our hotel where our rooms are ready for early check in.

Day 3: Arusha At this morning's briefing we learn about the journey ahead then set out on an afternoon game drive in Arusha National Park, where we may spot leopard, zebra, giraffe – and in the distance, possibly, snow-capped Mt. Kilimanjaro. Inside the park we'll see Mt. Meru, Africa's fifth highest peak at almost 15,000 feet. Tonight: a welcome dinner. B,L,D

Day 4: Arusha/Ngorongoro We depart today for Ngorongoro Conservation Area, wildlife haven and homeland of the semi-nomadic Maasai people. We arrive in time for lunch at our safari lodge uniquely set on the rim of Ngorongoro Crater, blending in so much with the landscape as to be invisible from the crater floor. This afternoon we visit a local Maasai village, where we see their traditional pastoral life-style up close. B,L,D

Day 5: Ngorongoro Crater This morning we descend to the floor of magnificent Ngorongoro Crater, a UNESCO site and at 100 square miles the world's largest intact and perfectly formed volcanic caldera.

The unique biosphere here has remained unchanged for eons; towering walls encircle the crater's floor which represents Africa in microcosm: grassland, swamps, lakes, forests, and some 25,000 mammals, including elephant, black rhinoceros, lion, hippo, and zebra. B,L,D

Day 6: Ngorongoro/Olduvai Gorge/Serengeti National Park En route today to the fabled Serengeti, we visit 31-mile Olduvai Gorge. It was here in 1959 that anthropologist Mary Leakey discovered the 1.8 million-year-old skull of Australopithecus boisei – and revolutionized the study of human evolution. Part of the Ngorongoro Conservation Area (which itself is part of the Serengeti region), Olduvai is considered the "cradle of humanity" and ranks as one of the world's most important prehistoric sites. Then we continue on to Serengeti National Park, home to such plains dwellers as the lion, cheetah, zebra, and wildebeest. The Serengeti, the Maasai's "endless plain," is considered Africa's finest park, and we begin to see why on this afternoon's game drive. B,L,D

Day 7: Serengeti National Park In Tanzania's northeast corner sits the vast Serengeti, 5,700 square miles (equal in size to Connecticut), one of the world's last great wildlife refuges, and the Tanzanian portion of Kenya's Masai Mara National Reserve. Twice a year (Jan–Feb and Jun–Oct), some 1.3 million wildebeest, 200,000 zebra, and 300,000 Thomson's gazelle migrate to new grazing lands, sparking one of nature's most spectacular sights and the world's largest migration. But the Serengeti's plains teem with animal life year-round, and this is the best place to see lion and cheetah up close. On today's game drives, we have the chance to see some – or all – of Africa's "Big Five," along with other plains animals and some 500 species of birds. B,L,D

Day 8: Serengeti National Park Another day to savor the spectacles and satisfactions of safari life in the Serengeti. B,L,D

Day 9: Serengeti/Zanzibar We fly this morning to tropical Zanzibar, Tanzania's semiautonomous Indian Ocean archipelago with a storied history. After checking in at our hotel, we set out to discover Stone Town, Zanzibar's capital and East Africa's only ancient town still functioning. A heady mix of Moorish, Middle Eastern, Indian, and African influences (though predominantly Muslim today), Stone Town boasts a labyrinth of narrow alleys lined with shops, homes, hidden courtyards, and extravagantly carved wooden doors, as we see on our afternoon tour. Highlights include the open air market, teeming with exotic fruits and vegetables; the 19th-century Cathedral on the site of a former slave market; the Old Fort, offering lovely views of town and the ocean; and "Tippu Tip House," residence of a notorious slave trader. Dinner tonight is on our own. B,L

Day 10: Zanzibar A morning tour of a spice plantation reveals why Zanzibar is known as the "Spice Island" – its bounty of cloves, nutmeg, ginger, chilies, black pepper, vanilla, coriander, and cinnamon have found their way around the world for centuries. We return to our hotel in time for lunch on our own and an afternoon at leisure before meeting for dinner together tonight. B,D

Day 11: Zanzibar/Saadani Leaving Zanzibar today, we fly to Saadani and our deluxe lodge nestled on the southern bank of the Wami River. Adjacent to Saadani National Park on the shores of the Indian Ocean, Tanzania's only coastal wildlife reserve, Saadani offers a unique safari experience. This afternoon we enjoy the first of the activities available to us throughout our stay, including game drives, river excursions, bird watching, and mountain biking. B,L,D

"My first guided tour and the experience exceeded my expectations in all regards. Our first big trip and Tanzania surpassed our expectations."

– Gary, '66, and Tish Glenn

Day 12: Saadani We have a full day to join in Saadani's activities, which enable us to see wildlife up close – and with little chance of encountering other safari-goers. In and around the lodge and national park, wildlife includes lion, leopard, buffalo, antelope, giraffe, elephant, and zebra. Closer to the river, we may see hippo and crocodile. We also have the opportunity to spot a diverse array of birdlife. B,L,D

Day 13: Saadani Another day to appreciate our unique wildlife-viewing opportunities at this alluring outpost. Tonight we celebrate our Tanzania adventure at a farewell dinner. B,L,D

Day 14: Saadani/Dar es Salaam We travel overland this morning to Dar es Salaam, Tanzania's largest city. Dinner tonight is at our hotel. B,D

Day 15: Depart for U.S. Early this morning we transfer to the airport for our flight to the U.S.

There will be many opportunities to spot giraffes.

Single Travelers

We welcome single travelers, and offer a limited number of single accommodations on each tour. Because hotel and cruise rates are priced by the room or cabin, the per person cost for accommodations occupied by one person is higher than that shared by two people. Required Information

In the event an airline ticket is issued with incorrect information you have provided, or if you use a different passport than originally cited, you will be responsible for charges associated with the ticket's reissue.

Travel Documents

A passport valid for at least six months after the completion of your tour, and with at least six blank visa pages, is required for U.S. citizens on all tours in this catalog. If your tour requires a visa or other entry documents, we will send you the appropriate information after you make a reservation. You are responsible for obtaining these documents. Smoking

For the convenience of the majority of our travelers, Odysseys Unlimited has a No Smoking policy on all tour buses. We will arrange sufficient rest stops so those who wish to smoke may do so.

Health and Medical Issues

We welcome all travelers, but request that you be in good health to participate in an Odysseys Unlimited tour. All of our tours involve a reasonable amount of walking (typically two to three miles per day), often uphill or on uneven or cobblestone streets. You must be able to get on and off motorcoaches and boats on your own. We regret that we cannot provide individual assistance if you require the use of a wheelchair or have other personal needs; in such cases you must be accompanied by a companion who will assist you. Please note that a number of our itineraries cannot accommodate wheelchairs. Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. and the University of Washington Alumni Association (UWAA) reserve the right to remove anyone whose physical condition or behavior, in our opinion, compromises the operation of the tour or detracts from the enjoyment or safety of the other tour members. In that event, UWAA and Odysseys Unlimited assume no financial responsibility for any unused portion of the tour. In addition, Odysseys Unlimited and UWAA reserve the right to decline to accept the trip application of any prospective traveler who, in the opinion of Odyssey Unlimited or UWAA, is incapable of successfully completing the trip.

Air Transportation

Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. includes in its tour price round trip economy air from designated gateway cities as shown and contracts with those airlines they feel provide the level of service, routings, and value necessary for your entire trip. While another airline may offer a more direct connection, it may be at a price unavailable at the lower group rates. You will receive your preliminary air schedule approximately 2½ months prior to departure. Please note that seat assignments on your international flight are usually done at airport check-in. Odysseys Unlimited is unable to guarantee any seat assignments. Due to the nature of tour operator tickets, other restrictions apply, including but not limited to, frequent flyer mileage accrual, stopovers, alternate travel dates, upgrades, and airline taxes and departure fees. If you prefer to make your own travel arrangements, Land Only is available on most tours. Since international and domestic air schedules are subject to change at any time, we recommend that if you choose to make your own airline reservations, you do not purchase non-refundable tickets or those with high penalties for changes. If you choose to make your own air arrangements, Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. and the UWAA will incur no liability for any loss resulting from cancellation of this tour or changes therein. In any event, neither Odysseys's Unlimited, Inc., nor the UWAA is responsible for losses, direct or indirect, or missed components of a trip which result from air delays, cancellations, rerouting or any other air-related problem.

Responsibility

The liability of Odysseys Unlimited, Inc., as tour operator, is strictly limited. Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. purchases transportation, hotel accommodations, restaurant and other services from independent suppliers not under its control. It serves only as an agent for these suppliers in securing tour arrangements, and therefore will not accept responsibility for wrongful, negligent, or arbitrary acts or omissions of these independent contractors, their employees, agents, servants or representatives. Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. is not liable for injury, damage, loss, accident, or delay that may be caused by events not within its control, including without limitation, acts of terrorism, war, strikes, the defect of any vehicle, or the negligence or default of any third party. All coupons, receipts, and tickets issued are subject to the terms and conditions specified by the air carriers, cruise line, and other independent suppliers. Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. will make every effort to operate our tours as planned, but we reserve the right to make itinerary changes as necessary. If unforeseen circumstances require us to change a hotel, we will select alternative accommodations of the same or better quality. Cruise itineraries may change due to factors such as government regulations, water levels, or weather conditions. See also the University of Washington Alumni Association's (UWAA) Release of Liability, Assumption of All Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement form which you have to sign as a condition of your going on this trip. This form is sent to all participants upon placing a tour deposit and needs to be returned within 30 days after receipt or at least 60 days before the beginning of the trip, whichever is sooner.
