

UW Medicine

ANESTHESIOLOGY
& PAIN MEDICINE

33RD ANNUAL BONICA LECTURE

“7 Amazing Pain Facts That Could Change Your Life”

Lorimer Moseley, DSc, PhD, FACP

Professor of Clinical Neuroscience, Foundation Chair in Physiotherapy, Chair, PainAdelaide; School of Health Sciences, University of South Australia

Thursday, May 10
5:30pm–6:30pm

UW Health Science Building
1959 NE Pacific St., Seattle, WA
Hogness Auditorium
Room A-420

Professor Moseley has delivered lectures to an audience of over 35,000 people in 12 countries. His widely-read book “Painful Yarns: Metaphors and stories to help understand the biology of pain” has sold over 100,000 copies and 180,000 downloads, and was short-listed for the Best New Work 2007 Prize for Public Science Writing. His “Why Things Hurt” TEDx talk, ranked in the top 0.1% views of all their 25,000 talks to date.

Dr. John J. Bonica was the founding Chair of the Department of Anesthesiology at the University of Washington in 1960, and the founder of modern pain medicine.

For more information, please contact stephk5@uw.edu