

University of Washington
Supplementary Application for Admission to Anthropology
Department of Anthropology

Application for Autumn Quarter, 2010
Application Deadline: December 15, 2009
(postmarked)

Please print or type using black ink
Be sure to sign both the Application for Admission to the Graduate School and this Application for Admission to Anthropology.

Mail directly to:

Department of Anthropology, Box 353100
Attn. Graduate Student Program Coordinator
University of Washington
Seattle, WA 98195-3100
Phone: 206-685-1562 FAX: 206-543-3285
e-mail: gradanth@u.washington.edu

Please check interest area
(please choose only one)

- Archaeology
- Biocultural Anthropology
- Sociocultural Anthropology

Additional specialty areas

Please check if applying to the Department of Health Services, Epidemiology, or Global Health for a concurrent MPH/PhD and indicate the specific program in your "statement of purpose"

Please check if you have an interest in pursuing an environmental anthropology specialization

Name (Last, First M.)

E-mail

Please indicate sources of funding outside the Department of Anthropology that you have applied for or which you will receive (grants, fellowships, etc.):

Names of those writing letters of recommendation (please no more than 3):

Educational Information

| College or School | Area of Study | Dates | | Degree (BA, MA, etc) | Month/Year conferred /expected | GPA |
|-------------------|---------------|-------|----|----------------------|--------------------------------|-----|
| | | From | To | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |

Academic honors, awards, prizes:

Tests and Scores

| GRE Scores: | | TOEFL* | TSE |
|--------------------|---|---|------------|
| date | | date | date |
| Verbal | % | score | score |
| Analytical | % | *The TOEFL test, in addition to the GRE, is required of all non-English speaking international applicants. The only exception will be international applicants who have obtained a degree from an English speaking institution. Applications are not considered complete and will not be reviewed until all materials, including TOEFL scores, are received by the Anthropology Department. (Scores over 2 years old are not valid.) | |
| Written | % | | |

Other Applications

List other graduate programs to which you are applying (include other graduate programs at the University of Washington):

| |
|--|
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |

What theoretical or topical interests do you want to emphasize in your graduate training?

What geographic or ethnographic area do you want to emphasize in your graduate training?

With reference to any language or languages that will be of relevance to your research and/or dissertation fieldwork, describe your current competence and/or your training needs (please review the information on the following website and determine if you are eligible to apply for a Foreign Language Area Studies (FLAS) fellowship. If you determine you are eligible please complete a FLAS application and submit directly to the FLAS office (you must apply separately for both department admission and FLAS consideration):
<http://jsis.washington.edu/advise/catalog/Flasxt8.html>

Attach a "Statement of Purpose" essay of not more than 5 double-spaced pages, indicating:

- why you are undertaking graduate work in anthropology;
- your career plans or other information that would be helpful to the admissions committee;
- why you applied to this department and how your background, special interests, abilities, and work have prepared you for graduate studies;
- and, any travel experiences that may have prepared you for graduate work in anthropology.

Applicant's Signature

Date
