

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON
Department of Architecture

GRADUATE SEMINAR SELECTIVES 2007-2008

All M. Arch. students take at least two graduate seminar selectives.

Number	Course Name	Autumn	Winter	Spring
A413	Architectural Photography Projects		Stamets
A434	Color and Light		Minah
A441	Visions of the Japanese House	Oshima
A442	Africa & Middle East Seminar		McLaren
A445	South Asian Architecture I	Prakash
A446	South Asian Architecture II		Prakash
A452	History of Architecture in Seattle and Environs		Ochsner
A457	20 th Century Architecture			Clausen
A462	Spatial Composition	Huber
A484	Design Computing Seminar		Johnson
A495	Architectural Studies Abroad	Iarocci/McLaren
A498	Architects as Civic Leaders			Sutton
A498	Asia Cities: History, Theory, Practice			Oshima
A498	Elements of Sustainability	Heerwagen
A498	Gender and Architecture			Iarocci
A498	Modern Japanese Practice		Oshima
A498	Paris Architecture and Urbanism			Clausen
A498	Vernacular Architecture			Merlino
A532	Green Technology		Heerwagen
A535	Seminar in Environmental Lighting			Meek
A556	Arts & Crafts Movement		Ochsner
A558	20 th C. Architecture Seminar		Clausen
A559	American Utilitarian Architecture		Iarocci
A560	Grad Seminar on Architectural Theories	Dee		Prakash
A561	Urban Design Theory		Huber
A577	Ethical Practice*		Sutton
A587	Design Computing Theory		Johnson
A588	Research Practice	Inanici
A598	Ecological Ethics, Aesthetics and Design	Mugeraur
A598	Sustainability, Environment, Health			Heerwagen
BE551	The Contemporary Built Environment	Anderson

Please note: some of these courses may not be offered every year.

*Counts as either a graduate seminar or professional practice seminar, but not both.