

Annual Symposium

Progress in Biobehavioral Cancer Prevention

Funded by the National Cancer Institute through the Biobehavioral Cancer Prevention and Control training grant

Healing and Feeling: Stress, Support, and Cancer

Guest Speaker: Professor David Spiegel, MD
Stanford University

9:30 a.m.

Oral and Poster Presentations by Biobehavioral Cancer Prevention and Control Fellows

11:00 am Undetected Health Problems and Surveillance Needs in Long-Term
Cancer Survivors

Samantha Artherholt , PhD

11:20 am Cancer Survivorship Experiences of Rural Hispanics: Qualitative Data
Findings

Jennifer Livaudais

12:30 pm Poster presentations

1:50 pm Willingness to Pay for Melanoma Risk Reduction in People with Melanoma and Their First Degree Relatives

Nora Henrikson

2:10 pm Body Composition and Adherence to a Yearlong Exercise
Intervention Among Previously Sedentary Men and Women

Lisa Cadmus , PhD

Summary & discussion with Robert Greenberg, MD

8:30 am to 3:00 pm

RSVP to akirchh@u.washington.edu to reserve luncheon

Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center

1100 Fairview Avenue North

Arnold Building (PHS), Room M1-A303

visitor parking available

4

APRIL

University of Washington
School of Public Health and Community Medicine

FRED HUTCHINSON
CANCER RESEARCH CENTER
A LIFE OF SCIENCE