Bioethics Grand Rounds

“Difficult Conversations: Talking with teens (and their parents) about poor prognosis”

Thursday, April 6, 2017
2:00 – 3:00pm
Health Sciences Building, T747

Course Objectives
Upon completion of the activity, attendees should be able to:

- Define “Palliative Care”
- Summarize communication science from perspectives of parents, providers, patients
- Identify and use two resources for clinical practice

Abby R. Rosenberg, MD, MS
Assistant Professor
Department of Pediatrics,
Hematology/Oncology

The University of Washington School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Washington School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 6.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. (Each session 1.0 credit.)

To request disability accommodation, contact the Disability Services Office at least ten days in advance at 206.543.6450/V, 206.546.6452/TTY, 206.685.7264/FAX, or email dso at uw.edu.