The Supreme Court’s ACA Decision and “the neediest among us”

Monday, September 17, 2012
4:00 – 5:00 p.m.
Health Sciences Building, T-625
Reception to follow

What does the Supreme Court’s decision upholding the Affordable Care Act mean for those who are – and for those who are not – “the neediest among us”? Professor Sanford will discuss the Court’s decision, ethical questions raised by the Medicaid option, and related ACA provisions.

Our speaker is Sallie Thieme Sanford, J.D., Assistant Professor of Law and Adjunct Assistant Professor of Health Services at the University of Washington. Professor Sanford’s research interests focus on health reform, health administration law and medical ethics.
