

CCPH E-News: February 2008

Dear Colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of February. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities, and opportunities for involvement!

This E-News is CCPH's free e-newsletter for non-members. We invite you to become a member of CCPH! Your modest investment allows us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve higher education, civic engagement, and the health of communities.

Why join CCPH?

- Be the first to hear about funding opportunities and other important news!
- Receive substantial publication discounts!
- Pursue professional development opportunities at discounted rates!
- Connect with colleagues who share your passion for partnerships and social justice through our online Member Directory, Interest Groups and Listservs!
- Access low cost, high-quality training and technical assistance!
- Influence policy on issues you care about, such as eliminating health disparities, changing faculty promotion and tenure, and increasing funding for community-campus partnerships!

DON'T MISS THESE DEADLINES!

* February 12 – Nominations Due for CCPH Annual Award. The award recognizes exemplary partnerships between communities and higher educational institutions that improve higher education, civic engagement, and the overall health of communities. The complete "Call for Nominations" is available at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/awards.html>.

* March 17 – Applications Due for Community-Engaged Scholarship Faculty Development Charrette, May 28-30 in Chapel Hill, NC. We are seeking teams from 20 diverse colleges and universities across the U.S. to participate in a charrette to facilitate development of innovative campus-wide mechanisms for preparing and supporting community-engaged faculty. The complete "Call for Applications" is available at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/faculty-engaged.html>.

* April 4 – Early Bird Deadline for CUexpo Conference, May 4-7 in Victoria, BC, Canada. In lieu of our own major conference this year, CCPH is delighted to be a core sponsor of the third Community-University Exposition, “Community-University Research Partnerships: Connecting for Change.” We encourage CCPH members to adopt the CUexpo conference “as their own” and fully participate in it. The CCPH annual award will be presented at the conference and a CCPH member meeting is scheduled for Monday May 5. For more information, visit <http://www.cuexpo08.ca/index.html>.

* April 10 – Applications Due for 11th Summer Service-Learning Institute, July 25-28 in the Cascade Mountains of Washington State. Gain the knowledge, skills and strategies to incorporate service-learning into the health professions curriculum! We encourage early applications as past years’ institutes have had wait lists. See details at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/servicelearning.html>.

NEW AT CCPH

* Achieving the Promise of Authentic Community-Higher Education Partnerships: Community Partners Get Organized! This new report about community partner perspectives on community-higher education partnerships is one of the many outcomes of the April 2006 Community Partner Summit. In addition to offering key ingredients and a framework for authentic community-higher education partnerships, the report details a vision for these partnerships articulated by the Summit’s community partner participants, along with strategies and recommendations on how to achieve this vision. The report also describes the work that has been done by these community partners and CCPH since the Summit in the areas of peer mentoring, policy development and advocacy. Download the report from the Community Partner Summit webpage at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/cps-summit.html#Products>. Learn more about the work that’s continued since the Summit, including opportunities to get involved, at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/cps.html>. If you know of community partners, whether new to community-higher education partnerships or more experienced, who may be interested in connecting with their peers, please put them in touch with CCPH Program Director Kristine Wong by email at kristine@u.washington.edu or phone at (206) 543-7954.

* Catch up with CCPH at the National Council on Ethics in Human Research National Conference, February 16-17, 2008 in Ottawa, ON, Canada. CCPH senior consultant Nancy Shore is presenting on ethical considerations in community-based participatory research (CBPR). The theme of the conference is Vulnerabilities: Importance of Context in Ethical Research and Human Participation Protection, For more information, visit http://www.ncehr-cnerh.org/english/events/national\_2008%20ENGLISH.php.
