

CCPH E-News September 2, 2008

Dear Colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of September. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities, and opportunities for involvement!

This E-News is CCPH's free e-newsletter for non-members. We invite you to become a member of CCPH! Your modest investment allows us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve higher education, civic engagement, and the health of communities.

Why join CCPH?

- Be the first to hear about funding opportunities and other important news!
- Receive substantial publication discounts!
- Pursue professional development opportunities at discounted rates!
- Connect with colleagues who share your passion for partnerships and social justice through our online Member Directory, Interest Groups and Listservs!
- Access low cost, high-quality training and technical assistance!
- Influence policy on issues you care about, such as eliminating health disparities, changing faculty promotion and tenure, and increasing funding for community-campus partnerships!

CCPH TRANSITION UPDATE!

 CCPH Welcomes New Program Coordinator! CCPH is excited to welcome new Program Coordinator, Jessie Tobin, to our team. Once a Seattle resident herself, Jessie is thrilled that CCPH has moved to Milwaukee where she can support its mission and work. Jessie's public health research and community practice focus on the benefits of community-driven development in creating healthy neighborhoods.

CCPH Welcomes New Program Coordinator! Planning for next year's CCPH conference, April 29-May 2, 2009 in Milwaukee, WI is underway. Meet the 2009 conference planning committee members.

 New CCPH Leadership & Organizational Home, CCPH has been at it's new organizational home for one month. CCPH's new Executive Director, Cheryl A. Maurana, Senior Associate Dean for Public and Community Health at the Medical College of Wisconsin (MCW) in Milwaukee is very excited to lead the organization!

CCPH's address is as follows:

Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH)
