

Community-Campus Partnerships for Health presents:

Supporting Faculty who Advance Social Justice through Community- Engaged Scholarship — LI #2011

Co-Sponsored by the Community Based Public Health Caucus

Sunday, November 7, 2010; 8:00 AM – 11:30 AM

APHA Annual Meeting, Denver, CO

This Learning Institute will provide community-engaged faculty members, post-docs and graduate students who are committed to advancing social justice with tools and strategies for successful academic careers.

To attend the APHA-LI courses, a separate registration fee of $200 is required.

The APHA 2010 Annual Meeting registration opens June 1. Registration information may be accessed on this date at www.apha.org/meetings/registration. Contact Sarena Seifer at ccphuw@u.washington.edu with any questions.

Presenters:

Lynn W. Blanchard, MPH, PhD, Director, Carolina Center for Public Service, UNC-Chapel Hill & Co-Director, Faculty for the Engaged Campus

Sherril B. Gelmon, DrPH, Professor of Public Health, Mark O. Hatfield School of Government, Portland State University & Evaluator, Faculty for the Engaged Campus

Catherine Miller Jordan, PhD, Director, Children, Youth and Family Consortium, University of Minnesota; Co-Director, Faculty for the Engaged Campus & Editor, CES4Health.info

Sarena D. Seifer, MD, Executive Director, Community-Campus Partnerships for Health & Director, Faculty for the Engaged Campus