

MEZCOPH students, staff, faculty & families are invited to celebrate

Martin Luther King Jr. Day

as "a day on, not a day off."

A Day of Service Learning

Service Projects with: Where: Reid Park

• Borderlinks

• Humane Borders

• Bureau of Applied Research in Anthropology (BARA)

• Tucson Interfaith HIV/AIDS Network (TIHAN)

• and more...!!!

Ramada 22

(Near Country Club and Camino Campestre)

When: Mon. Jan. 21st, '08, 10am-2pm

Who: MEZCOPH & families

Why: "Everybody can be great, because everybody can serve" —Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Be a part of the solution!!

For more information contact Sara, sshuman@email.arizona.edu.

2008 (1st Annual) Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service

Sponsored by the UA Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health

When: January 21st, 2008
10AM to 2PM

Where: Reid Park, Shelter #22 (See map below)

What: "A day on, rather than a day off."

Clubs and organizations from the Tucson community and the University of Arizona will provide information and community service activities for UA College of Public Health students, staff, faculty and families, in honor of Martin Luther King Jr.

Schedule:

Set-up and registration	9 – 10 AM
Service projects and information tables	10 – 1 PM
Lunch and speaker presentation	1 - 2 PM

Participating Organizations

UA Bureau of Applied Research in Anthropology (BARA)
Borderlinks
Tucson Interfaith HIV/AIDS Network
International Refugee Committee
The Hermitage Cat Shelter
Harvest Tucson
Chicanos por la causa
Global Health Alliance
Public Health Student Alliance
Humane Borders

Mel and Enid Zuckerman
College of Public Health

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day January 21, 2007

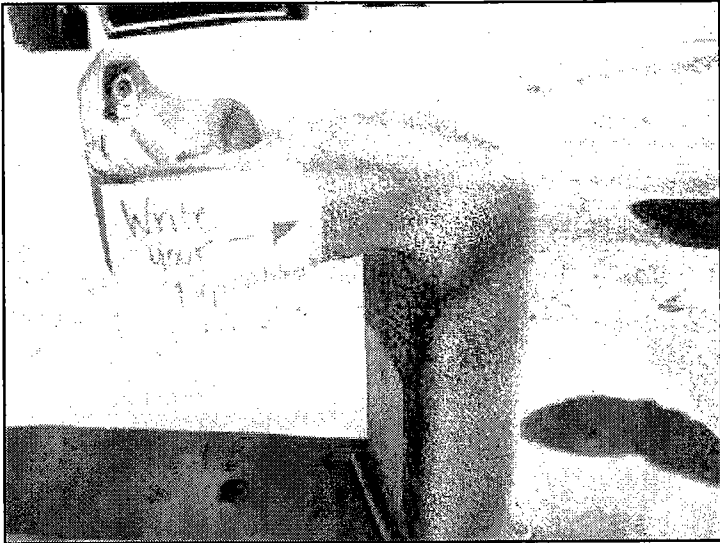

“Starting the day and setting up.”

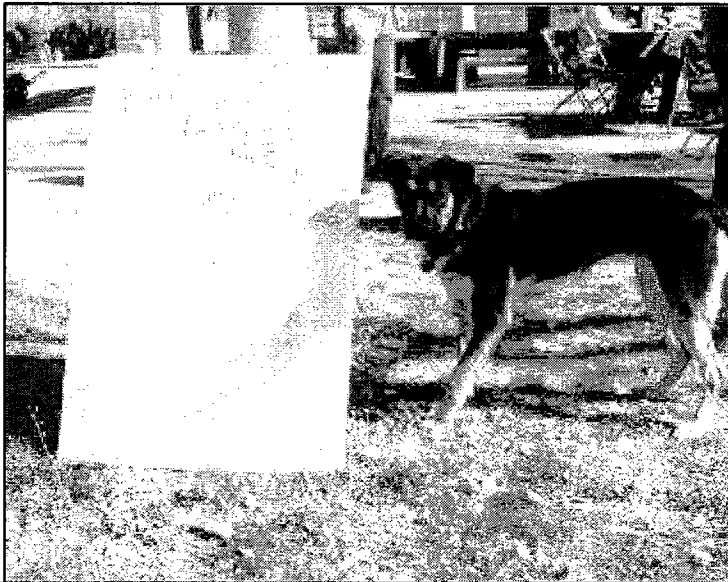

“Working to support individuals with HIV/AIDS.”

“Getting involved in public policy, writing letters to our representatives, and registering to vote.”

“Supporting our refugee community, harvesting local fruit.”

“Making survival kits for migrants on our desert.”

“Building bricks and molds for sustainable development in Nogales, Sonora.”

