

CCPH E-News: April 2009

Dear Colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of April. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities, and opportunities for involvement!

This E-News is CCPH's free e-newsletter for non-members. We invite you to become a member of CCPH! Your modest investment allows us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve higher education, civic engagement, and the health of communities.

Why join CCPH?

- Be the first to hear about funding opportunities and other important news!
- Receive substantial publication discounts!
- Pursue professional development opportunities at discounted rates!
- Connect with colleagues who share your passion for partnerships and social justice through our online Member Directory, Interest Groups and Listservs!
- Access low cost, high-quality training and technical assistance!
- Influence policy on issues you care about, such as eliminating health disparities, changing faculty promotion and tenure, and increasing funding for community-campus partnerships!

WHAT'S NEW AT CCPH?

New Community-Engaged Scholarship (CES) Resource Sheet! This new resource sheet provides easy access to CES reports, tools and discussion groups available on the CCPH website, and can be used as a handout at conferences, institutes, and trainings. To download the CES Resource Sheet visit: <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/scholarship.html#References>.

New Featured Member Trevor Goddard! Trevor Goddard is Director of the Go Global program at Curtin University in Western Australia. Go Global is a service initiative supporting community based health care providers in India, China, Ukraine and South Africa. Curtin staff and students work in partnership with host sites building capacity for local staff and enhancing the global citizenry of allied health students. Trevor received a 2006 Australian National Carrick Institute citation for outstanding contributions to student learning...'For enabling an international multi disciplinary health and development learning experience that enhances personal, professional and clinical skills and cultural awareness of health science students'. He believes through programs such as Go Global, universities can connect with international communities and stimulate the citizenship capacity of graduates. To read more about Trevor's work and the Go Global program, visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/featuredmember.html>

Strategic Planning Support through the CCPH Consultancy Network! The CCPH Consultancy Network is facilitating two strategic planning meetings this month: Loma University Adventist Health Sciences Center's new Institute for Community Partnerships, April 23-24 in Loma Linda, CA and Wilfrid Laurier University's Centre for Community Research, Learning and Action, April 30 in Waterloo, ON Canada. To tap into the CCPH Consultancy Network for training, technical assistance or consultation, contact CCPH senior consultant Rachel Vaughn at sliccph@mcw.edu or visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/mentor.html>
