

CCPH E-News: January 2009

Dear Colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of January. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities, and opportunities for involvement!

This E-News is CCPH's free e-newsletter for non-members. We invite you to become a member of CCPH! Your modest investment allows us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve higher education, civic engagement, and the health of communities.

Why join CCPH?

- Be the first to hear about funding opportunities and other important news!
- Receive substantial publication discounts!
- Pursue professional development opportunities at discounted rates!
- Connect with colleagues who share your passion for partnerships and social justice through our online Member Directory, Interest Groups and Listservs!
- Access low cost, high-quality training and technical assistance!
- Influence policy on issues you care about, such as eliminating health disparities, changing faculty promotion and tenure, and increasing funding for community-campus partnerships!

WHAT'S NEW AT CCPH?

 SUBMIT YOUR CCPH ANNUAL AWARD NOMINATION TODAY! *Deadline: January 30, 2009. The Community-Campus Partnerships for Health Award recognizes exemplary partnerships between communities and higher educational institutions that build on each other's strengths to improve higher education, civic engagement, and the overall health of communities. Partnerships must nominate themselves and need not be members of CCPH. The nomination materials for CCPH's Annual Award are now available by visiting our website at: <http://www.depts.washington.edu/ccph/awards.html>

 Update on CCPH Conference: We are sorry to let you know that we have had to make the difficult decision to cancel the CCPH conference that had been scheduled to take place April 29 - May 2, 2009 in Milwaukee, WI. We plan to sponsor a variety of lower-cost opportunities for professional development, dissemination and networking in the coming year. We thank you for your understanding and look forward to sharing more details in early 2009. For more information, please visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/conf09-overview.html>

CCPH's 12th Summer Service-Learning Institute Application Now Available! Plan now to attend the CCPH 12th Summer Service-Learning Institute held July 24-27, 2009 in the Cascade Mountains of Washington State! The Institute is designed for both new and experienced service-learning practitioners. It is taught by national experts in service-learning. For more information and application materials visit: <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/servicelearning.html>. Applications are due May 8, 2009.

Read about our newest Featured Member! CCPH Member Dr. Mark DeHaven is Professor and Chief of the Division of Community Health Sciences in the Department of Clinical Sciences at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center. Guided by his understanding that most health-related suffering is preventable and unnecessary, Mark and his team are developing and refining innovative community-based participatory research (CBPR) models and programs for improving health outcomes and life chances among those at greatest risk of preventable disease. To read Mark's full interview about his work and passions, visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/featuredmember.html>
