

CCPH E-News: April 2006

Dear Colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of April. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities, and opportunities for involvement!

Many people assume that if they get e-mails from CCPH, they are a member! If you are receiving this E-News, you are NOT currently a member of CCPH. Your modest investment in CCPH helps us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve health professions education, civic engagement, and the health of communities. To read about the many benefits you would receive by becoming a CCPH member, please visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/members.html>.

Join CCPH today! Join online by credit card at <http://www.RegOnline.com/8776> or by check sent along with this downloaded form: http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/pdf_files/Jan2004.memmbrocpdf.pdf.

Don't miss out on timely announcements - make sure CCPH_news@u.washington.edu is on your e-mail safe list! If you have any questions, please contact us at (206) 543-8178 or ccphuw@u.washington.edu.

DON'T MISS THESE UPCOMING DEADLINES!

 Applications Due April 7 for CCPH 9th Summer Service-Learning Institute – July 21 – 24, 2006, in Cascade Mountains of Washington State. Application materials are available at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/servicelearning.html>. This intensive training institute has tracks for both novice and experienced service-learning practitioners. A unique and effective aspect of the institute's approach is inclusion of a mentoring model in which participants work in small groups with mentors to further shape their own action plans for developing and sustaining service-learning courses and programs. A peer-reviewed paper on the institute's proven success is available at www.academicmedicine.org/pt/re/acmed/fulltext.00001888-200005000-00058.htm. For more information, contact Rachel Vaughn, CCPH senior consultant, at ccphuw@u.washington.edu or (206) 543-8178.

 Register and Book Your Hotel Room NOW for the CCPH Conference May 31 – June 3, 2006, in Minneapolis! Early-Bird Conference Registration Pricing Ends April 13. Register online today at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/conf-registration.html>. Rooms at the Hyatt Regency Minneapolis Must Be Reserved By May 5. For details, visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/conf-accom.html#Hotel>. For more information about the conference, see "Update on CCPH's 9th Conference" below or visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/conf-overview.html>.

 Applications Due May 5 for Canadian Community-Based Research Skill-Building Institute for Partnership Teams: July 27 – 30, 2006, in Barrie, Ontario. This interactive skill-building institute will guide participants in initiating, developing, and sustaining community-based research partnerships. For more information on the training curriculum and the Community-Institutional Partnerships for Prevention Research Group that developed it, please see: <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/researchprojects.html#ExaminingCommunityPartnerships>. Institute mentors include CCPH program director Kristine Wong, CCPH board chair-elect Ella Greene-Moton, and CCPH members Robb Travers, Sarah Flicker, and H  l  ne Gr  goire. For information and applications, please visit www.wellesleycentral.com/cbrinstitute.csp. Questions? Email tripler@wellesleycentral.com or call (416) 972-1010.

NEW AT CCPH

 Join CCPH in Celebrating National Public Health Week (NPHW). "Designing Healthy Communities: Raising Healthy Kids" is the theme of this year's NPHW which starts today and is sponsored by the American Public Health Association and cosponsored by CCPH among other national organizations. On April 4, KaiserNetwork.org will webcast an NPHW program focusing on children's health: www.kaisernetwork.org/health_cast/hcast_index.cfm?display=detail&hc=1693 For more information on NPHW, visit www.nphw.org.

 Community Leaders Convene on April 24 – 26 for Summit at the Wingspread Conference Center in Racine, Wisconsin. The overall purpose of the invitational Summit is to advance authentic community-higher education partnerships by mobilizing a network of experienced community partners. Convened by CCPH, the Summit is co-sponsored by the WK Kellogg Foundation, the Johnson Foundation, and Atlantic Philanthropies and supported by the Community-Based Public Health Caucus of the American Public Health Association, the National Community-Based Organization Network, and the National Community Committee of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Prevention Research Centers Program. For more information, contact CCPH program director Kristine Wong at Kristine@u.washington.edu or (206) 543-7954.

CCPH Executive Director Sarena Seifer Appointed to National Advisory Panel for New Carnegie Elective Classification on Community Engagement. Higher educational institutions that are engaged with community can now apply to the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching for a new elective classification for Community Engagement. The National Advisory Panel will support the review process for the first year. The classification represents a significant affirmation of the importance of community engagement in the agenda of higher education. For more information, visit www.carnegiefoundation.org/classifications/sub.asp?key=785&subkey=1061. Questions about the community engagement classification can be sent to Amy Driscoll at driscoll@carnegiefoundation.org.
