

CCPH E-News: June 2007

Dear Colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of June. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities, and opportunities for involvement!

*This E-News is CCPH's free e-newsletter for non-members. We invite you to become a member of CCPH! Your modest investment allows us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve higher education, civic engagement, and the health of communities. Why join CCPH? Find out here: <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/members.html>

Join CCPH today online by credit card at www.regonline.com/Checkin.asp?EventId=8776 or by check sent with this form: http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/pdf_files/Brochure%20Final.pdf.

DON'T MISS THESE JUNE DEADLINES!

* Letters of Intent Due June 8 to Serve as CCPH's Organizational Home. The CCPH Board of Directors has issued a National Request for Proposals to serve as CCPH's organizational home. The RFP and answers to questions received about it are posted in "What's New" column on the CCPH home page at <http://www.ccph.info>. Please send any questions you may have about the RFP to ccphrfp@u.washington.edu.

* CCPH is seeking a Membership Coordinator to join our staff. Deadline to apply is June 5. The Membership Coordinator is responsible for coordinating all aspects of the membership and publications programs at CCPH and facilitating the transfer of these programs to CCPH's next organizational home. For details and application information, visit <http://www.idealists.org/en/job/223507-50>

Register Today for Final Call in Educational Conference Call Series on Institutional Review Boards (IRBs) and Ethical Issues in Research. The call, on the topic of IRB Reform: Changing Policy and Practice to Protect Communities, takes place on June 25 from 12-1:30 pm pacific time. The call is free to those dialing in from the US and Canada, but the number of incoming lines is limited. To ensure your spot, register online today at <https://catalysttools.washington.edu/survey/ccphuw/33264>. The series, cosponsored by CCPH and the Tuskegee University National Center for Bioethics in Research and Health Care, is intended to increase understanding of the role of IRBs and other mechanisms for assuring that human subjects research is ethical and appropriate - both at individual and community levels. The calls are free to those dialing in from the US and Canada and registration slots are limited. For more information, visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/irbcalls.html>. Audiofiles & handouts from past calls are available at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/pastpresentations.html>.

NEW AT CCPH

* Call for Papers on Ethical Considerations in Community-Based Participatory Research.

Papers are due November 1, 2007 for a special issue of The Journal of Empirical Research on Human Research Ethics that CCPH is helping to edit. For details, visit http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/pdf_files/CFP-JERHRE-CBPR.pdf

* CCPH Stories of Impact! As part of our 10th Anniversary Celebration, we put out a call for “stories of impact” that capture how CCPH has had an impact on you, your partnership, and/or the field as a whole (see: http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/PM_020907.htm#Anniv).

Some stories were incorporated into the CCPH 10th Anniversary Report, Community-Campus Partnerships for Health: Celebrating a Decade of Impact, available at http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/pdf_files/10AnnivReportfinal.pdf. Others are being shared through the CCPH website and Partnership Matters newsletter, including these:

CCPH and West Virginia: A Match Made in Almost Heaven, by Hilda Heady, Past CCPH Board Member and Executive Director, West Virginia Rural Health Education Partnerships

http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/PM_051107.html#Anniv

The Rewards of Creating a Sustainable Community-Campus Partnership, by Eileen Yancey, CCPH Member and Director, Morehouse School of Medicine Prevention Research Center, http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/PM_052507.html#Anniv.

Do you have a story to tell? Email it to ccphuw@u.washington.edu

CATCH UP WITH CCPH AT MEETINGS THIS MONTH!

* Academy Health Annual Research Meeting, June 3-5 in Orlando, FL. CCPH members Vickie Ybarra (Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic) and Darius Tandon (Johns Hopkins University) are among the presenters on a June 4 panel, “Enhancing Research Through Collaborative Community-Higher Education Partnerships: Models of Community-Based Participatory Research.” For more information, visit

<http://www.academyhealth.org/arm/index.htm>

* Crossroads II: Community-Based Collaborative Research for Social Justice, June 7-9 in Hartford, CT. CCPH is cosponsoring this 2nd international community-based research conference sponsored by the Institute for Community Research. Crossroads II will explore the transformative potential of community-based collaborative research to promote social justice. CCPH board chair Ella Greene-Moton will be speaking on June 8 about the future, funding and development of community based research. CCPH will also have an exhibit at the conference. For more information, visit <http://www.incommunityresearch.org/crossroadsII.htm>

* Summer Institute on Community-Based Participatory Research, June 26-29 in Jackson, MS. CCPH joins with the Historically Black Colleges and Universities Faculty Development Network and the Center for Civic Engagement & Social Responsibility at Tougaloo College in cosponsoring this intensive team-based institute. CCPH board chair Ella Greene-Moton and CCPH member Ann-Gel Palermo will be speaking on “Creating authentic community-campus partnerships” and serving as mentors to community-academic teams attending the institute. CCPH will also have an exhibit. For more information, visit <http://www.hbcufdn.org>
