

CCPH E-News: December 2006

Dear Colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of December. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities, and opportunities for involvement!

On behalf of the CCPH board and staff, we extend you best wishes for a happy and healthy holiday season!

This E-News is CCPH's free e-newsletter for non-members. We invite you to become a member of CCPH! Your modest investment allows us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve health professions education, civic engagement, and the health of communities.

NEW AT CCPH

Looking for an Intensive Training Institute Focused on Service-Learning in the Health Professions? Applications are now available for the 10th CCPH Summer Service-Learning Institute -- July 20-23, 2007 -- in the Cascade Mountains of Washington State. Applications are due March 15, 2007, and can be printed from the CCPH website at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/servicelearning.html>. Apply early as space is limited! For more information, visit our website at www.ccph.info or contact Rachel Vaughn, CCPH senior consultant, at sliccph@u.washington.edu or (206) 543-8178.

Allen Miller of COPE Health Solutions is CCPH's Featured Member. COPE Health Solutions' vision is to continue to develop and replicate proven, sustainable solutions to health workforce, health care access, and care management challenges in diverse communities across the nation and the world. Read more about Allen Miller and his colleagues at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/featuredmember.html>.

CCPH 10TH ANNIVERSARY CONFERENCE: "Mobilizing Partnerships for Social Change," April 11-14, 2007, in Toronto, ON, Canada

Call for Applications for Toronto-Area Community Site Visits! CCPH is seeking applications from organizations involved in innovative community-campus and other partnerships in the Toronto area to host a conference site visit. Community site visits provide an opportunity for conference participants to learn in-depth from local partnerships by spending about three hours touring and talking with the partnership's major stakeholders. Are you involved in a partnership located in the Toronto area? Consider applying to host a community site visit! Applications due by Wednesday, January 17, 2007. For more information, visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/conf-sitevisits.html>.

Scholarship Funding for Community-Based Conference Participants from the U.S. and Canada! Scholarships are available to help defray the cost of registration fees, hotel accommodation, and/or transportation. The deadline to submit a scholarship application is Tuesday, January 16, 2007. For more information, visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/conf-support.html>.

Call for Conference Exhibitors & Cosponsors! Exhibiting at the CCPH conference brings name recognition and visibility to your organization. The conference provides excellent opportunities to meet with attendees face-to-face, demonstrate your services, and disseminate your products. As an exhibitor, your organization will be described in the conference program and listed on the conference website. For more information, visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/conf-exhibiting.html>. To view a list of current exhibitors and cosponsors, visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/conf-coexhibit.html>.
