

Community-Campus Partnerships for Health

Transforming Communities & Higher Education

CCPH E-News August 2010

Dear colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of August. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities, and opportunities for involvement!

Stay up on the latest CCPH news – become a fan on Facebook and follow us on Twitter! Sign up today from our homepage at <http://www.ccpb.info>

TIME-SENSITIVE ANNOUNCEMENTS

 Proposals Due Aug 15 for CCPH Co-Sponsored Forum on Urban Health! Join CCPH executive director Sarena Seifer, CCPH member Ann-Gel Palermo and other CCPH'ers involved in the Faces of Urban Health: A Forum to Share Community-Based Strategies to Address Health Inequity in Urban Communities, Oct 26 in Harlem, New York City. The forum will showcase the voices, perspectives, and experiences of community advocates, organizations and residents who participate in urban health and social research activities within a participatory research approach. For more information, visit <http://bit.ly/cR16R5>

 CCPH Conference Proposals Due Sept 10! "Community-University Partnerships: Bringing Global Perspectives to Local Action," will be held May 10-14, 2011 in Waterloo Region, Ontario. CCPH is fully supporting this Canadian-led conference in lieu of our own major one in 2011. We encourage you to present and attend. It will be a fabulous opportunity to share and learn with colleagues from across North America and beyond! CCPH members will receive their usual member registration discount. Learn more at <http://www.cuexpo2011.ca/>

 Your Input Sought by Sept 13 for Global Conversation on Community-University Engagement.

The Global Alliance on Community Engaged Research (GACER) is facilitating and participating in a global dialogue video conversation on community-university engagement on September 23. CCPH is a member of GACER and we are seeking input from our members and constituents to feed into the conversation. Please review the questions below and send your responses to ccphirb@u.washington.edu no later than September 13. We will compile and share a summary of the responses received. Learn more about GACER at <http://communityresearchcanada.ca/?action=alliance>

1. What suggestions do you have for ways that national and international networks of community-university engagement can support one another or work together?
2. What specific policy recommendations do you have that you would like to see included in a statement that will come out of the conversation and be shared with global higher education policy stakeholders, national and international networks of community-university engagement and local/national groups?
3. Is there a research and engagement theme that we might explore as something that we might work on together, taking advantage of the global outreach of our combined networks? What issues are critical across our global contexts such as climate change, health disparities, housing affordability, food security, etc.)?
4. Do you have any other comments you'd like to share? Please do so!

 Donate Now to Support Community & Student Participation in CCPH! Thanks & kudos to CCPH conference participants who donated $780 for the Bobby Gottlieb Scholarship Fund! We're challenging

CCPH members to match their contribution by Sept 1. All donations are tax-deductible and none are used for administration. To learn more and make a donation, visit http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/gottlieb_fund.html

UPCOMING EVENTS!

 CCPH's Faculty for the Engaged Campus Featured at Engaged Faculty Institute, Aug 11-12 in Alta, Utah! Faculty for the Engaged Campus Co-Director and CES4Health.info Editor Cathy Jordan will be giving a keynote presentation on "Supporting the Growth & Advancement of Community-Engaged Scholars." For info on the institute, contact nancy.basinger@gmail.com. Book a presentation through the CCPH Consultancy Network – learn more at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/mentor.html> or email us at ccphirb@u.washington.edu

 Register Today for CCPH Co-Sponsored Learning Institutes at the American Public Health Association Conference, November 6-10 in Denver! "Building Bridges from CBPR to Collaborative Policy Making" will be held on November 6 and "Supporting Faculty Who Advance Social Justice through Community-Engaged Scholarship" will be held on November 7. To register, go to: <http://www.apha.org/meetings/registration>

NEWS FROM CCPH

 Whirlwind Tour of Community-Engaged Universities in Australia! CCPH board chair-elect Susan Gust and CCPH executive director Sarena Seifer have returned from speaking at the Australian Universities Community Engagement Alliance Conference (AUCEA) and will soon report on what they learned and plans for continued CCPH-AUCEA collaborations. In the meantime, check out photos from the trip on CCPH's facebook page at <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Community-Campus-Partnerships-for-Health/215367077241?v=wall>

 Community-Engaged Faculty Members Sought to Serve as Mentors & Portfolio Reviewers! The CCPH Online Database of Faculty Mentors & Portfolio Reviewers is a new resource designed to support individuals who are pursuing community-engaged careers in the academy. Are you a community-engaged faculty member who is committed to the success of those coming through the pipeline behind you? Apply to be listed in the database today at <http://www.facultydatabase.info/>. Community-engaged graduate students, post-docs and faculty are able to search the site for potential mentors and portfolio reviewers.

 Peer-Reviewed Products of Community-Engaged Scholarship! The latest product published through CES4Health.info, "Turtle Finding Fact Sheet: The Role of the Treatment Provider in Aboriginal Women's Healing from Illicit Drug Abuse," identifies key skills & traits for assisting Aboriginal women with re-claiming their cultural identity. Access this resource – and find out how to submit products and apply to be a peer reviewer - at <http://www.CES4Health.info/>

ABOUT E-NEWS

This E-News is CCPH's free e-newsletter for non-members. We invite you to become a member of CCPH! Your modest investment allows us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve higher education, civic engagement, and the health of communities.

Why join CCPH?

- Be the first to hear about funding opportunities and other important news!
- Receive substantial publication discounts!
- Pursue professional development opportunities at discounted rates!
- Connect with colleagues who share your passion for partnerships and social justice through our online Member Directory, Interest Groups and Listservs!
- Access low cost, high-quality training and technical assistance!

- Influence policy on issues you care about, such as eliminating health disparities, changing faculty promotion and tenure, and increasing funding for community-campus partnerships!

All contributions to CCPH are tax-deductible to the extent allowable by law. Join CCPH today at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/members.html#BecomeAMember>.

Need more information? Visit our "answers to frequently asked questions" page at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/faq.html> or email us at ccphuw@u.washington.edu

Forward this e-mail to friends and invite them to subscribe to CCPH E-News at https://mailman2.u.washington.edu/mailman/listinfo/ccph_news

Become a CCPH fan on Facebook and follow us on Twitter! Click on these links to sign up:
<http://www.facebook.com/pages/Community-Campus-Partnerships-for-Health/215367077241?v=wall>
<http://twitter.com/CCPH2010>

Community-Campus Partnerships for Health promotes health (broadly defined) through partnerships between communities and higher educational institutions. Join us for "Community-University Partnerships: Bringing Global Perspectives to Local Action," May 10-14, 2011 in Waterloo Region, ON, Canada!

Stay on top of the latest CCPH news! Visit our homepage, sign up for our e-news, become a fan on Facebook and follow us on Twitter! <http://www.ccph.info>
