

Subject: [ccph-news] June 2010

Dear colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of June. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities, and opportunities for involvement!

Stay up on the latest CCPH news - become a fan on Facebook and follow us on Twitter! Sign up today from our homepage at www.ccph.info

CATCH UP WITH CCPH AT EVENTS THIS MONTH!

 June 2 – Advancing a Canadian Knowledge Commons – Montreal, QC Canada. CCPH has joined with Community-Based Research Canada, the Canadian Alliance of Community Service Learning and Social Innovation Generation at the University of Waterloo to co-sponsor this free national summit on the role of knowledge in society. Whether you can attend the summit or not, visit the Knowledge Commons website at <http://knowledgecommons.ning.com/> to comment on the framing papers, suggest ideas and post resources!

 June 2 – Australian Health Promotion Association Annual Conference – Melbourne, Australia. CCPH board member Ella Greene-Moton is a keynote presenter. Between her leadership roles in CCPH, the American Public Health Association and the National Community-Based Organization Network, and the conference theme, “Walking the Talk Together: Partnerships for Health Promotion,” we can’t imagine a better speaker! Details at <http://bit.ly/aSfui4>

 June 3-4 – Partners in Research Workshop: Communities & Researchers Working Together to Improve Health through CBPR – Rochester, MN. CCPH is cosponsoring this workshop that features a number of CCPH speakers, including board member Susan Gust, CES4Health editor Cathy Jordan, consultant Ann-Gel Palermo and service-learning institute mentor Julie Nigon! Details at <http://bit.ly/bdmZr9>

 June 7-11 – Engagement Academy for University Leaders – Roanoke, VA. CCPH has joined with the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, the Coalition of Urban and Metropolitan Universities, Association of Public Land-grant Universities and Virginia Tech's Center for Organizational and Technological Advancement to plan this annual executive development program designed for University leaders responsible for community engagement. CCPH executive director Sarena Seifer serves as a faculty member. For details, visit <http://www2.cota.vt.edu/ea/>

 June 16 from 3:30-5 pm ET – CCPH Conference Call – CES4Health.info: Publishing Diverse Products of Community-Engaged Scholarship. On the call, you’ll learn about www.ces4health.info, an exciting new outlet for publishing and disseminating training curricula, educational videos, policy reports, online toolkits and other diverse products of community-engaged scholarship! The call will cover how to submit and search for products, how products are reviewed, and how to apply to be a reviewer. Free for those dialing in from Canada and the US. Register today at <http://bit.ly/aMn4UH>

 June 30 – La Trobe University & Victoria Department of Health – Melbourne, Australia. CCPH Executive Director Sarena Seifer will be giving presentations about community-campus partnerships as a strategy for health equity as a Visiting Scholar with the Australian Universities Community Engagement Alliance (AUCEA). For more information, email Sarena directly at sarena@u.washington.edu. Visit the AUCEA website at <http://www.aucea.net.au/>

CCPH CONFERENCE UPDATE!

 Over 500 people from 42 states and DC in the US, 5 provinces in Canada, Australia, Germany, South Africa, Sudan and the UK attended last month's CCPH conference. Follow conference follow-up, reports and photos on Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Community-Campus-Partnerships-for-Health/215367077241?v=wall> and Twitter: <http://twitter.com/ccph2010>

 Proposals due July 1 for Next Year's CCPH Conference! Plan to join us for "Community-University Partnerships: Bringing Global Perspectives to Local Action," May 10-14, 2011 in Waterloo Region, Ontario. As a major partner, CCPH is fully supporting this Canadian-led conference (known as "CU Expo") in lieu of our own major conference in 2011. A discounted registration rate will be offered to CCPH members. For more information, visit <http://www.cuexpo2011.ca/>

 Be a Proposal Reviewer for Next Year's CCPH Conference! Individuals are needed from diverse settings (e.g., community, academic, government, philanthropy, etc) to review session proposals for CU Expo 2011, "Community-University Partnerships: Bringing Global Perspectives to Local Action," May 10-14, 2011 in Waterloo Region. Apply to be a reviewer by July 1 – go to <http://www.cuexpo2011.ca/> and click on "announcements."

NEWS FROM CCPH

 Applications Due July 12 for Canadian Initiative on Community-Engaged Scholarship (CES). CCPH & the University of Guelph are cosponsoring the Canadian initiative, "Developing and Rewarding CES: Towards the Transformation of University Policies and Practices." We are seeking applications from Canadian universities ready to take on the challenge of developing & rewarding CES through faculty development and changes in faculty promotion and tenure. For more information, visit www.cescholarship.ca or email ces@uoguelph.ca

 CCPH Announces Annual Award & Honorable Mentions! Congratulations to the Center for Community Health Education Research and Service (CCHERS) in Boston, MA, USA for receiving this year's CCPH annual award. The intent of the award is to highlight the power and potential of community-campus partnerships as a strategy for social justice. It honors partnerships that are striving to achieve the systems and policy changes needed to overcome the root causes of health, social and economic inequalities. Three partnerships also received honorable mentions this year: Community University Partnership Programme, Brighton, England; University Neighborhood Partners, Salt Lake City, UT, USA; and Bronx Youth as Partners, Bronx, NY, USA. For more information, visit <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/awardsrecipients.html#2010>. The call for nominations for the 2011 award will be posted this fall on our website at www.ccph.info.

 Communities as Partners in Cancer Clinical Trials Featured in Journal Issue! The latest issue of Progress in Community Health Partnerships: Research, Education and Action features an article and podcast interview from the Communities as Partners in Cancer Clinical Trials project co-sponsored by CCPH and the Education Network to Advance Cancer Clinical Trials. CCPH members save 20% on journal subscriptions at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/books.html>.

Seifer SD, Michaels M, Collins S. (2010). Applying Community-Based Participatory Research Principles and Approaches in Clinical Trials: Forging a New Model for Cancer Clinical Research. Progress in Community Health Partnerships: Research, Education and Action. 4(1): 37-46
http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/pdf_files/41communitiesaspartners.pdf

Seifer SD, Michaels M, Tanner A. Podcast Interview Transcript on Communities as Partners in Cancer Clinical Trials. Progress in Community Health Partnerships: Research, Education and Action. 4(1): 47-53
http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/pdf_files/41podcast.pdf

 Community-Engaged Faculty Members Sought to Serve as Mentors & Portfolio Reviewers! The CCPH Online Database of Faculty Mentors & Portfolio Reviewers is a new resource designed to support individuals who are pursuing community-engaged careers in the academy. Are you a community-engaged faculty member who is committed to the success of those coming through the pipeline behind you? Apply to be listed in the database today at <http://www.facultydatabase.info/>.

 Link Your Website to CCPH resources! A CCPH E-News reader writes: "I'd like to link my organization's website to some of the specific resources available on CCPH's website, not just the homepage. But the URL always just reads www.ccpb.info! What can I do?"

CCPH responds: "We encourage links to the CCPH homepage and specific resources on our website! If you start at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph>, you will be able to find unique URLs for each page. There's a "washington.edu" URL behind every page of the CCPH website. If you ever run into any trouble finding it, just google a heading from the content of the page along with depts.washington.edu and you should find it. Good luck and thanks for linking – we're glad you're finding our resources helpful!"

ABOUT E-NEWS

This E-News is CCPH's free e-newsletter for non-members. We invite you to become a member of CCPH! Your modest investment allows us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve higher education, civic engagement, and the health of communities.

Why join CCPH?

- Be the first to hear about funding opportunities and other important news!
- Receive substantial publication discounts!
- Pursue professional development opportunities at discounted rates!
- Connect with colleagues who share your passion for partnerships and social justice through our online Member Directory, Interest Groups and Listservs!
- Access low cost, high-quality training and technical assistance!
- Influence policy on issues you care about, such as eliminating health disparities, changing faculty promotion and tenure, and increasing funding for community-campus partnerships!

All contributions to CCPH are tax-deductible to the extent allowable by law. Join CCPH today at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/members.html#BecomeAMember>.

Need more information? Visit our "answers to frequently asked questions" page at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/faq.html> or email us at ccphuw@u.washington.edu

Forward this e-mail to friends and invite them to subscribe to CCPH E-News at https://mailman2.u.washington.edu/mailman/listinfo/ccph_news

Become a CCPH fan on Facebook and follow us on Twitter! Click on these links to sign up:
<http://www.facebook.com/pages/Community-Campus-Partnerships-for-Health/215367077241?v=wall>
<http://twitter.com/CCPH2010>

Community-Campus Partnerships for Health promotes health (broadly defined) through partnerships between communities and higher educational institutions. Join us for "Community-University Partnerships: Bringing Global Perspectives to Local Action," May 10-14, 2011 in Waterloo Region, ON, Canada!

Stay on top of the latest CCPH news! Visit our homepage, sign up for our e-news, become a fan on Facebook and follow us on Twitter! <http://www.ccpb.info>
