Visit the MLK Day Webpage at www.mlkday.gov. For materials on nonviolence, curriculum development, and reflection activities, see especially 40 Days of Nonviolence: Building the Beloved Community, an anniversary project in memory of Dr. King's assassination. Also, check out the website's list of national partners for connections in your area.

Upcoming MLK "Webinars"

The Corporation is offering the following webinars that you and your partners may find helpful as you work to expand the scope and relevance of King Day beyond the day of service. To sign up, please e-mail Heather Karlin at hkarlin@ppv.org at least 24 hours before the scheduled webinar to receive directions to access the training. Each webinar will be at 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time, and a recording will be available afterward if you can't make the live session.

- Tues., Jan. 8 - 40 Days of Nonviolence: Building the Beloved Community. Using Service as the vehicle to help build the Beloved Community, learn how to identify and implement projects that reflect the 6 Steps and 6 Principles of Nonviolence.- Presented by Carolyn Harper and Malukah Berry.
- Fri., Jan. 11 Mentoring - Learn how to utilize the 2008 MLK Day of Service effectively to recruit and match volunteer mentors by partnering with an existing mentoring program. MLK Day planning & fundraising toolkits, and organization registration

Please consider registering your organization and your King Day project. This is a great way to attract volunteers, media coverage, etc. Toolkits for planning and fundraising are also available at my.mlkday.gov/public/CreateUserAccount.aspx.

The UNNATURAL CAUSES Documentary Series (www.unnaturalcauses.org)

Now available, the UNNATURAL CAUSES Toolkit is a step-by-step guide to help you plan screenings that educate, organize or advocate for health equity, and inspire audience members to action. Also, a limited number of WORK-IN-PROGRESS DVDs are in circulation and available for preview and planning purposes. Finally, encourage local stations to broadcast UNNATURAL CAUSES during the national feed scheduled for 4 consecutive Thursdays at 10pm: March 27, April 3, 10, and 17. Go to www.unnaturalcauses.org/getinvolved.html.
