

CCPH E-News: July 2008

Dear Colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of July. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities, and opportunities for involvement!

This E-News is CCPH's free e-newsletter for non-members. We invite you to become a member of CCPH! Your modest investment allows us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve higher education, civic engagement, and the health of communities.

Why join CCPH?

- Be the first to hear about funding opportunities and other important news!
- Receive substantial publication discounts!
- Pursue professional development opportunities at discounted rates!
- Connect with colleagues who share your passion for partnerships and social justice through our online Member Directory, Interest Groups and Listservs!
- Access low cost, high-quality training and technical assistance!
- Influence policy on issues you care about, such as eliminating health disparities, changing faculty promotion and tenure, and increasing funding for community-campus partnerships!

WHAT'S NEW AT CCPH?

* Announcing the Theme of CCPH's 11th Conference! Creating the Future We Want to Be: Transformation Through Partnerships. Mark your calendars for April 29-May 2, 2009 and plan now to join hundreds of your colleagues for 4 days of skill-building, networking and agenda-setting in Milwaukee, WI – CCPH's new home city! The conference call for proposals will be released in August with an October deadline. More information will be available soon on the CCPH homepage at www.ccpb.info

* Journal Issue Focuses on Ethical Considerations in Community-Based Participatory Research. The June 2008 issue of the Journal of Empirical Research on Human Research Ethics is devoted to the theme of "ethical considerations in community-based participatory research." A team from CCPH co-edited the issue and co-authored the introduction/editorial, available for free on the issue website at <http://caliber.ucpress.net/toc/jer/3/2>. Order your copy of the issue from the website today!

* Audiofiles & Handouts Available from Community Partner Educational Conference Call Series! CCPH and the Community Partner Workgroups sponsored a 3-part call series that covered these key topics: Community-Based Participatory Research (CBPR) as a Strategy for Social Change: Perspectives from a Community-Academic Partnership, An Environmental Scan of Community Engagement in Health Research, and Engaging in CBPR: Tips & Strategies for Community Leaders. Details at <http://depts.washington.edu/ccph/cps.html#CallSeries>.

CATCH UP WITH CCPH THIS MONTH!

* CCPH's 11th Summer Service-Learning Institute, July 25-28 in the Beautiful Cascade Mountains of Washington State! The institute is designed for both new and experienced service-learning practitioners (faculty, staff and community partners). All spots are filled for this year's institute. To explore the possibility of bringing a customized version to your location, email CCPH senior consultant Rachel Vaughn at sliccph@u.washington.edu.
