

Community-Campus Partnerships for Health

Transforming Communities & Higher Education

CCPH E-News July 2011

Dear Colleague,

Below are highlights for Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) in the month of July. We hope this helps you stay better connected to our events, activities and opportunities for involvement!

Stay up on the latest CCPH news – become a Facebook fan, join our LinkedIn group & follow us on Twitter! Sign up today from our homepage at <http://www.ccpb.info>.

TIME-SENSITIVE ANNOUNCEMENTS

CCPH Conference Session & Poster Proposals Due Sept 26! Share your knowledge, wisdom and experience by submitting a proposal to present at our 15th anniversary conference, April 18-21, 2012 in Houston, Texas USA! The conference theme is "Community-Campus Partnerships as a Strategy for Social Justice: Where We've Been & Where We Need to Go." Proposals are sought for skill-building workshops, roundtable discussions, posters and sessions that incorporate storytelling and creative arts. Details at <http://bit.ly/hFPPIr>.

Are You Involved in Partnerships for Aboriginal & Indigenous Health? We Need to Hear from You! In partnership with the Native Research Network (NRN), CES4Health.info is publishing a themed set of products in 2012 focused on Aboriginal and Indigenous Health. Individuals from community and academic settings with relevant experience are also invited to apply to be peer reviewers. Reviewer applications are due Sept 1 and products are due Oct 1. For details, see "hot topics" at <http://CES4Health.info>.

Register Today for CCPH Co-Sponsored Learning Institutes at APHA! CCPH is involved in two learning institutes at the American Public Health Association conference, Oct 29 – Nov 2 in Washington DC: (1) Service Learning Models: Increasing Our Capacity to Eliminate Health Disparities on Oct 29 and (2) Supporting Faculty, Graduate Students & Post-Docs to Succeed as Community-Engaged Scholars on Oct 30. You may register for one or both learning institutes, with or without registering for the full conference. Details at <http://bit.ly/IMDcvq>.

NEWS FROM CCPH

2nd Paper Published from CCPH's National Study of Community-Based Processes for Research Ethics Review! The paper, "Relationships Between Community-Based Processes for Research Ethics Review and Institution-Based IRBs: A National Study" appears in Volume 6, Issue 2 of the Journal of Empirical Research on Human Research Ethics. To read the paper, and other study products, visit the study website at <http://bit.ly/hjqQXV>. For the latest news on community-based participatory research (CBPR) ethics, sign up for our CBPR ethics listserv: <https://mailman2.u.washington.edu/mailman/listinfo/ccph-ethics>.

Lighting the Way to a Better Future: A Domestic Violence Prevention Program for Churches is the latest innovative product of community-engaged scholarship to be peer-reviewed and published through <http://CES4Health.info>! Included are a training manual for human services and cooperative extension professionals who wish to prepare Latino pastors to address domestic violence in their communities, and a resource manual for pastors printed in Spanish and English. Learn more and download the product at <http://bit.ly/ig0JZT>. Follow the latest CES4Health.info news & products at <http://www.twitter.com/CES4Health>.

Partnership Aims to Advance Community-Engaged Scholarship in Canada. CCPH and 8 Canadian universities have formed a partnership to ensure that university tenure and promotion policies and practices recognize and reward community-engaged scholarship and mechanisms for developing community-engaged scholars are in place. Partner representatives convened in Toronto on June 29-30 to deepen their relationships and map out an agenda for the next year. Learn more about the partnership at <http://bit.ly/juAodP> and see photos from the meeting at <http://fb.me/12PaSKHIR>.

Membership Drawing Winners Announced! Thanks to everyone who responded to our May Membership Special! New and renewing members in May were entered into a drawing for one of three prizes: a copy of our two-volume Handbook of Engaged Scholarship (valued at $100), a free registration to CCPH's 15th anniversary conference, April 18-21, 2012 in Houston, TX (valued at $500) or a free hour of phone consultation on a topic of choice with a member of the CCPH board, staff or Consultancy Network (valued at $150)!

- Denise Bates won the handbook. At the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, Denise works together with a community coalition specific to refugee health and resettlement integration in the U.S. She contributes to research internationally, developing community coalitions for student research, which consistently employs community-based participatory research (CBPR) methodology and community-engaged scholarship with undergraduate and graduate students.
- Cassandra Ritas, winner of the conference registration, is the Principal Policy Advisor at the People's Policy Institute in Jackson Heights, NY, an education and action agency serving communities and their partners, who seek to create more effective policies through evidence-based, community-driven work. She received a CCPH fellowship in 2003 to develop her popular tool-kit: "Speaking truth, creating power: a guide to policy work for CBPR practitioners" available at <http://bit.ly/mgyQdp>.
- Rafi Younoszai won the consultation. As Professor of Anatomy (Emeritus) and Social Medicine, and the Director at the Center for Global & Community Health at Western University of Health Sciences in Pomona, CA, Rafi believes in creating service learning and relationship care environments for students.

What Do these Groups Have in Common? Harmony Garden, Maryland Center for Health Equity, the National Congress of American Indians Policy Research Center, the NCI Cancer Information Service and the University of Virginia Health System? They are deeply committed to community engagement and recently joined or renewed as CCPH organizational members! Learn more about the benefits of organizational membership and join today at <http://bit.ly/dl9a1K>.

KEEP ON TOP OF THE LATEST NEWS THAT YOU CAN USE!

Don't miss out on the latest opportunities for funding, presenting, publishing, professional development and advocacy! CCPH offers a number of tools to help you navigate the tremendous amount of information that pertains to community-campus partnerships:

- Follow Us on Twitter!
For announcements: @CCPH2010 or <http://twitter.com/CCPH2010>
For CCPH conference developments: @CCPHconference or <http://twitter.com/CCPHconference>
For job opportunities: @CBPRjobs or <http://twitter.com/CBPRjobs>
For CES4Health.info news: @CES4Health or <http://twitter.com/CES4Health>
- Follow Us on LinkedIn: <http://bit.ly/hVLG6U>

- Become a Fan on Facebook: <http://bit.ly/hKoYd7>
- Subscribe to CCPH Listservs: <http://bit.ly/hVFxzW>
The Community-Based Participatory Research listserv is our most popular, with over 4,600 subscribers!
- Visit our Homepage: <http://ccph.info>
Bookmark it and set it as your personal home page!

ABOUT E-NEWS

This E-News is CCPH's free e-newsletter for non-members. We invite you to become a member of CCPH! Your modest investment allows us to continue to serve as a resource for service-learning, community-based participatory research, and community-campus partnerships more broadly that are working to improve higher education, civic engagement, and the health of communities.

Why join CCPH?

- Be the first to hear about funding opportunities and other important news!
- Receive substantial publication discounts!
- Pursue professional development opportunities at discounted rates!
- Connect with colleagues who share your passion for partnerships and social justice through our online Member Directory, Interest Groups and Listservs!
- Access low cost, high-quality training and technical assistance!
- Influence policy on issues you care about, such as eliminating health disparities, changing faculty promotion and tenure, and increasing funding for community-campus partnerships!

All contributions to CCPH are tax-deductible to the extent allowable by law. Join CCPH today at <http://bit.ly/aNr0kC>.

Need more information? Visit our “answers to frequently asked questions” page at <http://bit.ly/jJXof> or email us at info@ccph.info.

Forward this e-mail to friends and invite them to subscribe to CCPH E-News at <http://bit.ly/jt6UXD>.

Community-Campus Partnerships for Health promotes health (broadly defined) through partnerships between communities and higher educational institutions. Join us for our 15th anniversary conference, April 18-21, 2012 in Houston TX! Stay on top of the latest CCPH news through Facebook, LinkedIn & Twitter! <http://www.ccph.info>
