

San José State University
HDSLCL Site Visit Schedule with Suzanne Cashman, Consultant
November 17 and 18, 2008

9:30 – 11

We'll meet with our principal faculty on this grant – overview presentation, general discussion

11:30 – 1:00

You and I will go to one of our community sites (2 miles from campus) to join our partner Dayana Salazar, talk about collaboration, have some lunch

1:00 - 1:45

Open in case we're running late or something else comes up that you'd like to do or see

1:45 – 2:00

Dr. Ed Mamary or Dr. Anne Roesler will walk you over to my large undergraduate class so you can spend a few minutes with them....you'll understand after our presentation why they are important to this MPH-focused grant

2:00 – 3:00

Meet with Ed Mamary in our beautiful library to discuss his experience with CBPR in a new course last spring

3:00 – 4:00

Leisurely walk back to the department office, time to talk about what you're seeing so far (again, time built in just in case we're running late)

4:00 – 5:30

Meeting with Dr. Anne Roesler and a discussion of service learning and fieldwork

6:00

Dinner and discussion with the MPH students who participated in our 1st year service learning experience this semester

7:30

Done for the day! One of the faculty will escort you back to the hotel (I stay with the class until 8:45)

Tuesday

8:30

We'll drop in briefly to the promotoras group (one of the spin-offs of this project) and then visit with another of our community partners, Aurora Garcia, McKinley School principal

9:15 Debrief with Kathleen Roe

10:00

Debrief with entire faculty, exit conversation, whatever you like...

11:30

Depart
