

About Us

The UW/FHCRC CFAR International Core supports, facilitates and coordinates HIV research by CFAR faculty in developing countries by providing logistical, operational and infrastructure support as well as small pilot grants.

Our People

Grace John-Stewart
Core Director

Scott McClelland
Associate Core Director

Joseph Zunt
Associate Core Director

Kate Murray
Core Manager

Helen Gribble
Procurement Specialist

Vrasha Chohan
Laboratory Coordinator

Contact Us

Mailing Address: Box 359931
325 9th Ave
Seattle, WA 98104

Physical Location: Ninth and Jefferson Building
13th Floor
908 Jefferson Street
Seattle, WA 98104

Email: cfarintl@uw.edu

Web: <http://depts.washington.edu/cfar/discover-cfar/cores/international>

Services

Funding Opportunities

- Infrastructure Awards
- Pilot Research Grants
- Small dollar support for unallowable costs (duty)

Administrative Consultations

- Advice and consulting related to administration of international projects, including:
 - Field advance administration and training
 - Purchasing
 - Transfer of funds to overseas sites
 - Obtaining FWAs
 - Establishing Memorandum of Understanding (MOUs)

Procurement and Shipping

- Investigator training on shipping (IATA and dangerous goods)
- Investigator training on procurement policy and procedures
- Rate negotiation for bulk purchase
- Shipping assistance for hazardous materials or laboratory equipment
- Pricing and procurement of equipment and supplies

Laboratory Support

- Advice on reagent and supply selection
- Lab equipment operations and maintenance training
- Quality Control Services
- Good Clinical Practice training

Mentoring and Study Development

- Assistance with grant development
- Consults related to study design and protocol development
- IRB and regulatory advice
- Human subjects training
- Need-specific In-country trainings

Some services may require a small contribution of FTE, depending on the amount of support needed and the resources available to the investigator.*