

EHEALTH SCIENTIFIC WORKING GROUP

EHEALTH WORKSHOP SERIES

Part 2: Introduction to Open Data Kit (ODK) for Electronic Data Collection

FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 2019

9:00a- 12:00p

Harborview Ninth and Jefferson Building - Room 1360

Facilitator: Keshet Ronen PhD

Participants will be able to describe the ODK platform and its use for data collection, list the strengths and limitations of ODK for different applications, and produce, use, and extract data from a data collection tool in ODK. To conduct the workshop exercises, participants must use an Android OS-based phone or tablet.

Through lecture and interactive sessions, this workshop will cover:

- Describe the ODK platform and its use for data collection
- List the strengths and limitations of ODK for different applications
- Produce, use, and extract data from a data collection tool in OD

Space is limited. Please contact cfar@uw.edu for registration.

Workshop is open to UW affiliated personnel interested in mobile electronic data collection.

No programming experience required.
