WHEREAS E. L. Franks and Clara B. Franks, his wife, and Joseph Fairchild and Mary Fairchild, his wife, are the owners and purchasers of the following described land, to wit:

The S 1/2 of the S.W. 1/4 of the N.W. 1/4 of Section 1, Township 23 North, Range 3
East W. M., King County, Washington.

NOW THEREFORE THE SAID OWNERS AND PURCHASERS do hereby impose the following reservations and protective and restrictive covenants, the purpose of which are to insure the use of the property for attractive residential purposes, to prevent nuisances, to maintain the desired tone of the community, and thereby to secure to each property owner the full benefit and enjoyment of his home, with no greater restrictions upon the free and undisturbed use of his property than are necessary to insure the same advantages to other owners:

These Covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding on all parties and all persons claiming under them until January 1, 1967, at which time said Covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of 10 years unless by vote of a majority of the then owners of the lots it is agreed to change said covenants in whole or in part.

If the parties hereto, or any of them, or their heirs or assigns, shall violate or attempt to violate any of the Covenants herein it shall be lawful for any other person or persons owning any real property situated in said development or subdivision to prosecute any proceedings at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or attempting to violate any such Covenant and either to prevent him or them from so doing or to recover damages or other dues for such violation.

Invalidation of any one of these Covenants by judgment or court order shall in no wise affect any of the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

In the event of death or resignation of any member of said committee, the remaining member, or members, shall have full authority to approve or disapprove such design and location, or to designate a representative with like authority. In the event said committee, or its designated representative, fails to approve or disapprove such design and location within 30 days after said plans and specifications have been submitted to it or, in any event, if no suit to enjoin the erection of such building or the making of such alterations has been commenced prior to the completion thereof, such approval will not be required and this Covenant will be deemed to have been fully complied with. Neither the members of such committee, nor its designated representative shall be entitled to any compensation for services performed pursuant to this Covenant. The powers and duties of such committee, and of its designated representative, shall cease on and after January 1, 1925. Thereafter the approval described in this Covenant shall not be required unless, prior to said date and effective thereon, a written instrument shall be executed by the then record owners of a majority of the lots in this subdivision and duly recorded appointing a representative, or representatives, who shall thereafter exercise the same powers previously exercised by said committee.
