

We are pleased to announce the official launch of the Summer 2014 U.S. Department of Energy Clean Cities University Workforce Development Program (CCWUDP). This summer, CCUWUDP is offering up to 34 workforce development program positions across the nation and applications are now available. This is a wonderful opportunity for students looking to gain experience in the energy and transportation areas. Please pass this information along to anyone you know who may be interested in one of these positions. The online application process closes on April 15, 2014, so applications and resumes must be submitted by that date. Applications can be found at <http://www.cvent.com/d/t4q2ds> with more information below. If you have any questions, please email cleancitiesintern@anl.gov.

The Clean Cities University Workforce Development Program is an initiative of Clean Cities, a government-industry partnership sponsored by the U.S. Department of Energy's Vehicle Technologies Program. Clean Cities strives to reduce petroleum consumption in the transportation sector in nearly 100 communities across the country. Since the creation of the CCUWUDP in 2010, Clean Cities has hosted more than 200 interns in more than 60 Coalitions.

The Clean Cities internship will give students studying communications, public relations, business, marketing, engineering or environmental sciences, the opportunity to grow public awareness and expand the markets of advanced vehicle technologies, alternative fuels, and practices that reduce the consumption of petroleum.

Specific Details:

- Up to 34 internships available at competitively-selected U.S. Clean Cities Coalition locations working with dynamic Clean Cities coordinators and their stakeholders
- Positions are 30 or 40 hours per week (determined by the coalition) for 10 weeks each semester
- Internship dates: Approximately May 27, 2014 through August 8, 2014. Exact start/end dates determined by individual coalitions
- Stipends range from $3,600 - $6,000 per semester depending on academic classification and number of hours assigned by the coalition.
- Many past internships have led to permanent positions!

To submit your resume and complete the online application, please click here and complete the application process by April 15, 2014. If selected, interns will be notified by May 20, 2014.
