ABOUT THE FOREST:

The San Bernardino National Forest, one of 18 National Forests in the State, is located in the counties of San Bernardino and Riverside. The Forest covers approximately 670,000 acres and lies above the surrounding cities of Ontario, Rancho Cucamonga, Fontana, Rialto, San Bernardino, Redlands, Mentone, Yucaipa, Banning, Beaumont, Apple Valley, Victorville, Lucerne Valley and the resort communities around Palm Springs. Several mountaintop communities, including Idyllwild, Lake Arrowhead, Wrightwood, and Big Bear are surrounded entirely by the National Forest. The Forest encompasses all or portions of several high elevation mountain ranges, including the eastern portions of the San Gabriel Mountains, the San Bernardino Mountains, and the Santa Rosa and San Jacinto Mountains. Major interstates cross the Forest, including I-10 and I-15.

COMMUNITY AND SURROUNDING AREA:

Big Bear Community

Big Bear is a four season resort community nestled in the Southern California Mountains of San Bernardino at an altitude of 7000 ft. The area is known for its beautiful freshwater lake, mountain climate and setting, alpine and cross-country ski opportunities, and miles of hiking, biking, and OHV trails.

With over 20,000 residents and 1,400 businesses, Big Bear is also a diverse and welcoming community for growing families. There is a hospital in town as well as a couple of major grocery stores, hardware stores, a number of churches representing a variety of faiths, and one major department store. There are three elementary schools, one middle school and one high school. There are also a variety of restaurants.
