

External Job Announcement

Position/Title: PS: Nat/Curators/Preservtn (WL) – formerly Wildlife Interpretive Specialist

Agency/Location: Wildlife Resources Division, GA – Go Fish Education Center (Perry)

Responsibilities: Under general supervision, plans, develops, and manages the aquatic education program and education exhibits at the Go Fish Education Center. This position carries out education programs, goals and objectives with native fish and aquatic species of Georgia. Coordinates volunteer programming efforts at the Go Fish Education Center. Works with the Department of Education to assure education programs meet Georgia Performance Standards, and coordinates disseminates information to teachers across the state regarding education programs. Schedules and plans activities for education groups booking field trips to the center. Work may include weekends and holidays.

Min. Qualifications: Completion of a Bachelor's degree in Natural Resource Management, Environmental Science, Historical Preservation or closely related field, OR Completion of a high school diploma/GED AND one year of experience in directly related field.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- 1) Preference may be given to current Wildlife Resources Division Employees.
- 2) One year experience in wildlife or environmental education programs.
- 3) Basic understanding of Georgia Performance Standards for education.
- 4) Exceptional written and oral communications skills.

Salary: $2,701.53/month, plus benefits

Application: Go to www.gadnr.org/careers to find Vacancy Announcement containing position number 00185118.

A completed State of Georgia application for employment must be submitted to Connie Hopkins at connie.hopkins@dnr.state.ga.us or via mail at Georgia Department of Natural Resources, Wildlife Resources Division, 2070 U.S. Hwy 278, Social Circle, Georgia, 30025.

Contact: For additional job related information please contact Jeremy Wixson, phone (478) 988-7186 or email Jeremy.wixson@dnr.state.ga.us

Application Deadline: November 18, 2014