

Michigan Tech seeks a committed and visionary academic leader to serve as provost and vice president for academic affairs. The provost and vice president for academic affairs is chief academic officer of the university, responsible for all of Michigan Tech's faculty and academic programs. The provost will lead efforts to advance the scholarly, research and service activities of the university and to recruit, develop, and retain a talented and diverse faculty and staff.

The successful candidate will be an accomplished leader and distinguished scholar with a record of vigorous support for the integration of education and research, and an experienced administrator who promotes and exemplifies excellence in education, research and outreach activities. In addition, the successful candidate will have demonstrated a commitment to recruiting and retaining a diverse faculty, staff and student body, to teamwork, and to creating an inclusive campus and community environment.

More information on the search and Michigan Tech can be found at the search website:
