

Dear Colleagues:

I am writing to let you know about two recruitments underway at The Nature Conservancy's Washington Forest Program in hopes that you may be able to help identify potential candidates for this excellent opportunity

Field Forester, Willapa Bay, located in Astoria, Oregon. (Job ID 42712, Closes 1/25/15) The Field Forester plans, manages and implements active forest management operations on the Conservancy's Ellsworth Creek Preserve, Clearwater Forest Reserve and adjacent partner lands to restore mature-old forest structure and function at a landscape scale. Working in a temperate coniferous rainforest environment, the Field Forester is responsible for day-to-day management of the forest to meet ambitious conservation objectives while also delivering other economic and community benefits.

Field Forester, Central Cascades, located in Cle Elum, Washington, (Job ID 42711, Closes 1/25/15) The Field Forester supports forest management operations and implements forest and stream restoration projects across the Conservancy's Central Cascades forest holdings (48,000 acres) and adjacent public lands. The Field Forester works with staff and partners to restore forest health and stream habitat at a landscape scale while also striving to deliver social and economic benefits to the surrounding community.

Ideal candidates will have a Bachelor's degree and three years of relevant experience or an equal combination of education and experience. We prefer Certified Forester under the Society of American Foresters, professional member of the Forest Guild, or experience with Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) certification principles and criteria.

This is an excellent growth opportunity for an internal candidate.

I have attached a job description for your consideration and would appreciate your forwarding it to any professional whose experience might qualify him or her for the position. Applicants must apply on-line at www.nature.org/careers <<http://www.nature.org/careers>> (external applicants) or PeopleSoft/Self-Service/Careers (internal applicants). To more easily locate the position, enter the job ID 42712 or 42711 in the keyword search. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or suggestions.
