

Elder Friendly Futures 2017

CONCURRENT SESSIONS II

Supporting Caregivers through Policy: Caregiver Advise, Record, Enable (CARE) Act and Recent Legislation on the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA)

Cathy MacCaul, Advocacy Director, AARP Washington

CATHY MACCAUL

Cathleen MacCaul is the Advocacy Director for AARP in Washington State and manages public policy and government relations to advance the issues that matter to the 50+ population. By working with state legislators and coalition partners, she successfully helped to pass several pieces of legislation to protect vulnerable adults from financial exploitation, to increase retirement savings for small business employees and to support caregivers. Prior to joining AARP she worked for Microsoft, World Vision and the YWCA and developed strategic communications, community engagement, public policy and corporate social responsibility campaigns supporting a variety of global and domestic poverty, economic justice and digital inclusion issues. Currently, she is working on a Master's of Public Policy from the University of Washington Bothell and receives studying tips from her two college-age daughters.