Thursday, October 2, 2008

Kick-off event:
Northwest wine-tasting and book signing

Location: UW Tower
4333 Brooklyn Ave. NE, Seattle

Time: 6:00 pm doors open for networking
6:45 seating for dinner
7:30 one-hour presentation

Miss one? View archived presentations on line! GME and ABHI credit available.

nwcenter.washington.edu

Thursday, November 6, 2008

Gary M. Franklin, MD MPH
Research Professor, Environmental Health, Department of Occupational Health Sciences and Neurology, University of Washington

- Recognize how best scientific evidence is used to improve quality
- Learn how occupational health care can be reorganized at the community level to improve outcomes
- Discuss how best health care practices can be used to prevent long-term disability

Thursday, February 5, 2009

Occupational Medicine in the Construction Industry: Intersection of Work with Chronic Disease and Aging
Laura S. Welch, MD
Medical Director, CWPW—The Center for Construction Research and Training, Silver Spring, MD

- Understand the magnitude of attributable risk for chronic respiratory and musculoskeletal disease from occupational exposures in construction
- Assess the likelihood of early retirement among construction workers with chronic respiratory and musculoskeletal disease
- Discuss programs and interventions that exist to keep construction workers with chronic respiratory and musculoskeletal disease at work

Thursday, March 5, 2009

Does Air Pollution Cause Cardiovascular Disease?
Joel D. Kaufman, MD, MPH
Professor, Department of Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences, Epidemiology, and Medicine, School of Public and Community Medicine (SPHCM), UW, Seattle, WA

- List and describe major kinds of outdoor, indoor, and occupational air pollutants
- Describe the recent evidence linking fine particulate air pollution with cardiovascular disease
- Discuss controversies in understanding how air pollutants might impact cardiovascular health

Thursday, April 2, 2009

The Flavor of Heat—Forcing Occupational Health Policy
Robert J. Harrison, MD, MPH
Clinical Professor of Medicine, University of California San Francisco; Chief, Occupational Health Surveillance and Evaluation Program, California Department of Health Services, San Francisco, CA

- Understand the value of Sentinel Case studies to Public Health
- Identify stakeholders involved in standard setting
- Describe the convergence of science and politics in policy-making
- Learn about the recent examples of heat stress and Diacetyl

Thursday, May 14, 2009

Occupational Health Research in China: Past and Future Research on Benzene Exposure and Risk
Roel Vermeulen, PhD
Institute of Risk Assessment Sciences, Utrecht University & Julius Center Health Sciences and Primary Care University Medical Center, Utrecht, The Netherlands

- Understand the changes in workforce and workplaces and their impact on health research in the last decade
- Learn about benzene exposure in China
- Recognize the health effects of benzene

Registration Grand Rounds 2008–2009

$50 includes dinner and lecture. Enrollment is limited. Advanced registration is required four business days prior to the session to guarantee dinner reservations. To save your place, mail or fax this registration form, call, or register online (see information at the bottom of this form). Cancellation policy: participants may cancel up to one week prior to the event. After this date, fees will be forfeited. Substitutions will be accepted with written notice one week prior to the event.

- Oct. 2, 2008 *register by Sep. 26 *register by Oct. 31
- Nov. 6, 2008 *register by Oct. 31
- Feb. 5, 2009 *register by Jan. 30
- Mar. 5, 2009 *register by Feb. 27 *register by Mar. 27
- Apr. 2, 2009 *register by Feb. 27
- Apr. 13, 2009 *register by Mar. 27
- May 14, 2009 *register by Apr. 27
- Register for all six and get one free! Only $250

Please bring a friend who has never been to a Grand Rounds—only $45 each (please register together).

Name (Dr. Mr. Ms.)
Degree(s)
Title
Organization
Address
City State Zip
Phone Fax
Email

Payment
Amount enclosed
Please make checks payable to University of Washington.
VISA/MC Exp. date
Signature

Mail registration to: Northwest Center for Occupational Health and Safety
4225 Roosevelt Way NE # 100, Seattle, WA 98105
Fax: 206-889-3872 Phone: 206-543-1069
or register online at http://nwcenter.washington.edu/

Learning Objectives
- Identify new developments in occupational and environmental medicine practice, including application of scientific discoveries in genetics, molecular biology, and epidemiology
- Identify best practices in occupational and environmental medicine, and learn how to evaluate them
- Discuss current trends in evolving occupational and environmental medicine practice, including manpower and training needs, and future issues that will need OEM attention

Planning Committee

Jordan Firestone, MD, PhD, MPH, Faculty Director
Acting Clinic Director, Occupational & Environmental Medicine Program; Acting Assistant Professor, Dept. of Neurology, Harborview Medical Center, University of Washington (UW)

Steven Hecker, MSPH
Senior Lecturer and Director, Continuing Education and Outreach, Department of Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences (DEOHS), UW, Seattle, WA

Noah Seixas, PhD, CIH
Director, Northwest Center for Occupational Health & Safety; Professor, DEOHS, UW, Seattle

Karen R. Bowman, MN, RN, COHN-S
President, Karen Bowman & Associates, Inc., Seattle, WA

Darla White
Executive Administrator, Northwest Association of Occupational & Environmental Medicine, Seattle, WA

Accreditation
Provider Approved by the California Board of Nursing. Karen Bowman, MN, RN, COHN-S Provider Number CEP13941 for 6 Contact Hours.

The Puget Sound Occupational and Environmental Medicine Grand Rounds are jointly sponsored by the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine (ACOEM) and the Northwest Association of Occupational and Environmental Medicine (NAOEM).

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the Joint Sponsorship of the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine and NAOEM. The American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine designates this educational activity for a maximum of 6.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Our symbol, the “Soul-Catcher,” is a Northwest Coast Indian symbol of physical and mental well-being. (Artist: M. Olivas)