

DEOHS

1947

First students enroll in undergraduate Sanitary Sciences program.

1951

Environmental Research Laboratory officially established at UW School of Medicine.

1963

Washington State Legislature funds the Environmental Research Laboratory to do research, teaching, and service in occupational health.

1970

Department of Environmental Health established in new School of Public Health and Community Medicine.

1977

NIOSH establishes Northwest Center for Occupational Health & Safety at UW.

2003

Name changed to Department of Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences (DEOHS).

TIMELINE