

LAKE CHELAN CLINIC WELCOMES

1ST YEAR MEDICAL STUDENT JOSEPH WOLF

Joseph grew up in rural Socorro New Mexico and moved to the Pacific Northwest pursuing his undergraduate education. He graduated from Seattle University with a degree in Psychology. Upon graduation, he received a commission in the United States Army serving as an officer on active duty and in the Washington Army National Guard. Joseph is in his first year of medical school at UWSOM's WWAMI site at WSU-Spokane. After completing his medical training, he hopes to practice either Family Medicine, Emergency Medicine, or Emergency Surgery in a rural community.

Personal interests include spending time with his fiancé, physical fitness, classic literature and mountaineering.

TRUST

(Targeted Rural/ Underserved Track)

The goal of Washington TRUST is to allow for a focused medical school experience in underserved care, with the eventual goal of returning physicians to practice in the underserved areas of Washington. Washington TRUST scholars will have multiple opportunities to experience first hand the joys and satisfaction of practicing medicine in an underserved community.
