Call to Order & Adjourn Previous Meeting:

Chris Lizotte (President): I will now call this meeting to order at 5:34pm. Once again, we seem to be having trouble with the projector so unfortunately, I can't show you the agenda but of course you all read and memorized it. As you'll notice, by the way, we have a new seating arrangement. We'll be starting out orienting this way and then switch to being oriented a little towards the center of the room so if you have to turn your chair around go ahead and do that. So that's how we're going to roll. I think it's fitting way to sit for this beautiful spring day we're having. They seem to go together. In the meantime, the first order of business is to actually adjourn the previous meeting since we ended the last meeting without having sufficient quorum to take any action. When 75% of the senate is no longer in the senate meeting, we can no longer do things so another reason why we're seated this way has to do with what we're going to do with later in the agenda so thank you for coming. We have some good stuff coming up. So with that, I'll entertain a motion to adjourn the meeting of two week ago.

Ted Chen (Bioengineering): Second.

Approval of Agenda:

Chris L: Are there any objections? Thank you. Now I will entertain a motion to approve the invisible agenda.

Douglass Taber (Evans School of Public Health): So moved.

Approval of Minutes:

Chris L: Any objections? Thank you and finally, the last order of business of administrative things, I'll entertain the motion to approve the minutes from the previous meeting.

Colin Bateson (Mechanical Engineering): So moved.

Bonnie Lau (Speech and Hearing Sciences): Second.
