ELECTIONS GUIDE
FOR 2019-2020 OFFICER ELECTIONS

DISTRIBUTED BY THE 2018-2019 GPSS ELECTIONS COMMITTEE
BECOME A GPSS OFFICER!

Thank you for your interest in a GPSS officer position. Serving fellow students is a significant responsibility, and working to represent the needs and demands of graduate and professional programs at the University of Washington is an extremely rewarding endeavor.

THE ELECTIONS GUIDE

This guide was prepared by the Elections Committee and serves to assist you in developing your campaign. Running for an officer position in the GPSS is designed to be as efficient as possible and should require very little of your time and money. Most candidates limit their campaigns to the candidate materials posted on the GPSS website and a speech at the election meeting, although candidates are free to do more within the limits outlined below.

The GPSS Elections Committee is charged with creating, implementing, and monitoring the election procedures to ensure that this process is fair for all participants. These GPSS Elections Rules are derived from the GPSS Constitution and Bylaws. If any material in this packet conflicts with the GPSS Constitution or Bylaws, the Constitution and Bylaws prevail.

Complaints or challenges regarding the Officer Elections process or results must be submitted in writing to the Elections Committee Chair within 48 hours of the adjournment of the Elections Meeting on May 1, 2019.

OVERVIEW

The GPSS, comprised of approximately 130 registered Senators from a vast array of programs, is an advocacy organization dedicated to improving graduate and professional student life at the University of Washington. The Senate works to maintain academic freedom for graduate and professional students, improve the quality of graduate instruction, develop and strengthen the University's diversity programs, maintain graduate and professional student representation through appointments to University committees, and ensure that quality student services are maintained at the UW.

The GPSS officers set the organization’s goals, implement Senate directives, communicate goals and actions to the University and students, and report on progress toward achieving these directives. To that end, the GPSS Officers hold regular meetings of the Senate, a forum for graduate and professional students to voice their concerns and give direction to the GPSS. GPSS officers are accountable for managing a budget of nearly half a million dollars and ensuring GPSS representation on over 70 University committees. GPSS officers also provide a critical link connecting students, administrators, faculty, community, the state legislature, Congress, and state and national associations such as the Washington Student Association (WSA) and Student Advocates for Graduate Education (SAGE).

To ensure that all officers have the capacity to complete these responsibilities, each position is compensated for working 19.5 hours a week for the entire year, starting in June. Officers earn a wage equivalent to the salary of a TA or RA, receive graduate appointment health insurance, and their tuition is paid by the GPSS. Due to the significant obligations of the positions, officers may not concurrently hold a TA/RA appointment.

The 2018-2019 Elections Committee developed these Elections rules based on the rules and experiences of past Elections, the Bylaws and Constitution of GPSS, and a set of values and principles developed by the committee. The rules and processes in this Elections Guide are intended to:

- Facilitate legitimacy and transparency for the election itself and for GPSS;
- Be fair for candidates and GPSS as an institution;
- Be clear and simple to understand, follow, and enforce;
- Be realistic considering GPSS’s resources and institutional capacity;
- Integrate lessons learned from previous elections to improve upon the Elections process;
- Be generally permissive, prohibiting or limiting conduct only to the extent necessary to serve the Constitution, Bylaws, and these values and principles.

§ 1.2: INDEPENDENT WITNESSES

To ensure complete fairness for all candidates participating in the elections process, the GPSS enlists independent witnesses. For the 2019-2020 GPSS Officer Elections, the independent witnesses will be:

● Rene Singleton, SAO advisor
● Christina Coop, SAO advisor

Challenges to the impartiality of the witnesses must be submitted in writing to the Judicial Committee at least 48 hours before the Elections Meeting on May 1, 2019. To contact the Judicial Committee, communicate with GPSS Secretary, Amy Gabriel, at gpsssec@uw.edu.
§ 2.1: GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

Read the entire Elections Guide, paying particular attention to the GPSS Elections Rules.

Familiarize yourself with the agendas and minutes of past GPSS meetings, as well as the GPSS Constitution, Bylaws, Memoranda, and Resolutions. All of these materials are available on the GPSS website (http://depts.washington.edu/gpss/) under the About GPSS section.

Attend at least three GPSS meetings during the 2018-2019 academic year prior to the Elections Meeting. At least one of the three meetings attended must have governed by rules of parliamentary procedure. The requirement to attend at least one meeting governed by rules of parliamentary procedure can be satisfied by attending Senate meetings, Executive Committee meetings, and Finance & Budget Committee Meetings. Upcoming meetings are scheduled as follows:

- Senate Meetings: March 6, April 3, April 17 at 5:30 p.m. in HUB 334.
- Executive Committee: February 27, March 13, April 10, April 24 at 5:30 p.m. in HUB 303.
- Finance & Budget Committee: February 22, March 1, March 8, April 5, April 12, April 19, and April 26 from 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. in HUB 314; contact gpsstres@uw.edu.

In addition to attending at least one of the previously mentioned meetings conducted under parliamentary rules of procedure, candidates must attend the meetings of the following committees depending on which officer position they intend to run for.

President: Presidential candidates must attend at minimum one Senate meeting and one Executive Committee meeting (the meeting used to satisfy the parliamentary procedure requirement may also be counted here if applicable).

Vice President of Internal Affairs: Candidates for the Vice President of Internal Affairs position must attend at minimum one Senate meeting and one Executive Committee meeting (the meeting used to satisfy the parliamentary procedure requirement may also be counted here if applicable).

Vice President of External Affairs: Candidates for the Vice President of External Affairs must attend at least one meeting of the Legislative Advisory Board.

Treasurer: Candidates for Treasurer must attend at minimum one meeting of the Finance & Budget Committee (the meeting used to satisfy the parliamentary procedure requirement may also be counted here if applicable).

Secretary: Candidates for Secretary must attend at minimum one meeting of the Diversity Committee.

The remainder of the requirement to attend at least three meetings may be satisfied by any of the GPSS meetings listed in this section. In addition, candidates for Vice President of Internal Affairs may attend one meeting of the ASUW Board of Directors to satisfy one of the meeting requirements.

The GPSS committees eligible to meet the requirements meet at the following times and locations:

- Diversity Committee: Tuesdays, 5:30 PM in HUB 314; contact gpsssec@uw.edu.
- Judicial Committee: Contact gpsssec@uw.edu.
- Legislative Advisory Board: Winter Quarter: February 21, February 28, March 7, and March 14 from 10-11 a.m. in HUB 314; Spring Quarter: TBD; contact gpssvpex@uw.edu.
- Science & Policy Committee: Winter Quarter: February 25 and March 11 from 5-6 p.m. in HUB 314; Spring Quarter: TBD, contact gpssvpin@uw.edu.
- Graduate Student Experience Committee: No meetings Winter Quarter; for Spring Quarter, contact gpssvpin@uw.edu.
- ASUW Board of Directors: Thursdays at 5:30 in HUB 303; contact asuwbdop@uw.edu. This meeting will only count toward the minimum requirement for Vice President of Internal Affairs candidates, although candidates for any office are encouraged to attend.
- Graduate Arts Council: Meetings to be determined. Please contact gpsspres@uw.edu.

In the case of a scheduling conflict, the candidate may petition the Elections Committee for an exception that may be granted by a majority vote of the Elections Committee.

Talk with the current officers about the position you are interested in. The current officers are:

- President: Giuliana Conti; gpsspres@uw.edu
- Vice President of Internal Affairs: Sydney Pearce; gpssvpin@uw.edu
- Vice President of External Affairs: Kelsey Hood; gpssvpex@uw.edu
- Treasurer: Robby Perkins-High; gpstres@uw.edu
- Secretary: Amy Gabriel; gpsssec@uw.edu

While being available to work at least part time during the Summer Quarter is strongly recommended, exceptions have been granted (see existing officers for details). As very important work occurs over the summer that sets the stage for the success of the rest of the year, candidates who cannot commit to working over the summer on at least a part time basis should consult the existing officer to make sure they could still be successful in the position. It is strongly encouraged that candidates meet with the existing officers and arrange a time to shadow them to learn more about the role, ideally before the election and definitely before newly elected officers officially begin to ensure a smooth transfer of responsibilities. Current officers have an obligation to answer all candidates’ questions fairly and honestly without bias toward anyone interested.

The Elections Committee will prepare a ballot with the officer positions and ability to rank candidates. Names of candidates running from the floor will be presented at the election meeting and available for voters. All names of candidates will be displayed for senators in alphabetical order by the position they are running for. The ballot will allow for ranking of the candidates so that an instant run-off can be made until the person with a simple majority of the GPSS Senators who vote in person or by absentee ballot has been determined. Exact details of this process are given in the Bylaws (Article V, Section H, Clause 4, Section m). In the event that there is still a tie after the instant run-off, the winner will be determined by a tiebreaker process detailed in the bylaws.

§ 4.7: ELIGIBLE VOTERS

Senators who have registered with the GPSS Secretary by Friday, April 26, 2019 will be allowed to vote in the Officer Elections. Voters eligible to vote in Officer Elections include sitting GPSS Officers and all registered Senators, including Executive Senators and all Senators sitting on the Judicial and Elections Committees. Voters can vote by absentee ballot or in person at the Elections Meeting.
The Elections Meeting shall convene May 1, 2019 at 5:30 p.m., HUB 334. The Elections Chair shall preside over the Elections portion of the Elections Meeting. The Elections Committee Chair will announce each position and the candidates who have shared their intentions to run for that position. Candidates will be given the floor in alphabetical order by last name, grouped by officer position.

After the candidates who have already filed to run for a position have been announced, the Elections Committee Chair will allow candidates to be nominated from the floor. Nominees that accept a floor nomination will be ordered alphabetically with the pre-filed candidates for that position, and all candidates will have the same amount of time to deliver a campaign speech.

Each candidate will get 3 minutes to deliver a campaign speech. Candidates are permitted one PowerPoint slide to be displayed during their speech, to be submitted to the Secretary no later than 2:30 p.m. on May 1, 2019. At the end of the speeches for a given officer position there will be a 10 minute period for all candidates to take and answer questions from the floor.

The Elections Committee will distribute ballots to all eligible voters present and will collect completed ballots. After all the candidate speeches are finished, voters will be asked to fill out their ballots. Voters must rank their preferences for all candidates in each position. Any candidate(s) not listed on a particular ballot will be considered to be tied for last ranking on that ballot. Once the Elections Committee has collected the ballots, they will immediately count the votes. The officers are elected by a simple majority of the GPSS Senators who vote in person or by absentee ballot.

The GPSS president will preside over the Senate Meeting while the Elections Committee counts the votes. During this time, the President may not entertain any motions that would interfere with the ability of the Elections Committee to count votes and report results to the Senate before the meeting adjourns. The Elections Committee Chair will continue presiding over the meeting when the Elections Committee is finished counting votes.

In the event that no candidate for a particular office receives the required majority vote in a race with three or more candidates, Instant Run-Off Vote Counting procedures will be used, as outlined in Article V, Section H, Clause 4, Section m of the Bylaws. In the event that a winner cannot be determined through Instant Run-Off Vote Counting, the tie shall be resolved by the process prescribed in the Bylaws. The Senate may elect to change that process by amending the Bylaws before the Elections Meeting.

Candidates will respect the privacy of individual voters while ballots are being completed and will not interfere with voters’ ability to complete their ballot privately and in a timely manner.

Candidates will respect the neutrality of the vote counting process and the role of the Elections Committee to administer the elections process. Candidates will not in any way interfere with the ability of the Elections Committee to count the votes accurately, fairly, and according to the processes prescribed in this Elections Guide, or the Constitution and Bylaws of GPSS.

After the election results have been announced, candidates may challenge the election procedures or results in the process described in Section 4.11 of this Elections Guide.

§ 4.10: ELECTIONS RESULTS

Once the Elections Committee has counted all votes and verified the winner, they will announce the results in person at the Elections Meeting, via email to all Senators, and on the GPSS website.

§ 4.11: ELECTIONS CHALLENGES

Any challenge of the elections procedures or results must be received by the Elections Committee Chair in a written form (including an email) within 48 hours of the adjournment of the Elections Meeting. Challenges are to be sent to the Elections Committee Chair for consideration by the Elections Committee. The Elections Committee will respond to the complaint within 1 week and release a written decision to all involved parties as well as the Senate. Further challenges to the elections process must be addressed to the GPSS Judicial Committee within 48 hours following the Elections Committee's decision.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR INTEREST IN A GPSS OFFICER POSITION. WE LOOK FORWARD TO FAIR AND ORGANIZED ELECTIONS AND WISH YOU THE BEST OF LUCK.
