

Thank you for attending!

And a big thank you to our sponsors:

This event is funded by the Huntington's Disease Society of America with support from Genentech, Teva, uniQure, Neurocrine Biosciences, Sage Therapeutics, PicnicHealth and MassMutual Special Care

RSVP at

<https://washington.hdsa.org/WAedday24>

Huntington's Disease Symposium
In partnership with Selkirk Neurology and
Oregon Health & Sciences University

Saturday, March 23rd, 2024 9:00am – 2:30pm

Location:

UW Tacoma Campus
1918 Pacific Avenue
William W. Philip Hall
Tacoma, WA 98042

9:00am-9:45am Registration and Coffee

9:45am-10:00am Welcome and Recognitions

Suman Jayadev, MD, Medical Director
- UWMC Huntington's Disease Center of Excellence

10:00am-10:45am HD Advocacy

Get the latest reasons for being an HD advocate!

Phylis Foxworth, HDSA Advocacy
Manager

10:45am-11:45am HD Research, and Clinical Trials

Get the latest updates on current HD research and trials!

Chris Kay PhD, Research Associate in the Hayden Lab
University of British Columbia - Centre for Molecular Medicine and Therapeutics

11:45pm-12:30pm Lunch provided – learn about Enroll-HD.

12:30pm-1:30pm Balance, Falls, Physical Therapy and HD

Learn specific tools to help with balance and falls.

Ashley Stanley, DPT

1:30pm-2:30pm Ask the Experts Panel

Individuals living with HD, families and caregivers can face challenges with symptom support and management. Bring your questions for our panel of Experts.

Amie Hillier, MD-OHSU Neurology
Clinic

Suman Jayadev, MD-UWMC HD COE
Jason Aldred, MD – Selkirk

Neurology

Brenda Vicars, RN-UWMC HD COE
Mikael (Miki) Stovarsky, MS, LCGC-UWMC HD COE

Supported by:

