

Hellenic Studies

An Emphasis within the European Studies Major

European Studies Requirements

Hellenic Studies Requirements

Language

- ◆ Two years basic language study
- ◆ Passing of competency exam. Credits do not count towards major.
- ◆ Ten credits of approved coursework at 300- or 400-level in foreign language or involving extensive foreign language use.

- ◆ EURO 111-2-3, 211-2-3 Modern Greek
- ◆ Passing of competency exam. Credits do not count towards major.
- ◆ 300- or 400-level work

Core Sequence (15 credits)

- ◆ EURO 301 (5)
A team-taught course on a range of topics important for the understanding of Europe in its present situation.
- ◆ Modern Europe (5)
A survey course dealing with (primarily) Modern Europe content, e.g. HIST 113.
- ◆ SIS 201 (5)
A survey course providing a historical understanding of the twentieth century and major global issues today.

- ◆ EURO 301 (5)
- ◆ Modern Europe (5)
Particularly appropriate is HIST/EURO 364 (Greece from 1821-Present)
- ◆ SIS 201 (5)

Study Abroad (10-15 credits)

Term of study abroad

Term of study in Greece

Electives (15 credits)

Most electives will be modern in focus, but students are required to take at least one course dealing with the pre-modern period.

Particularly appropriate are HIST/EURO 320 (5), "Greek History 7000 BCE – Present," and HSTAM 315 (5), "Byzantine Empire"

Senior Level (10 credits)

- ◆ Senior Research Seminar I (5)
EURO 494 or appropriate seminars offered by departments
- ◆ EURO 495 Seminar II (5)

- ◆ Senior Research Seminar I (5)
EURO 494 or appropriate seminars offered by departments
- ◆ EURO 495 Seminar II (5)