Wetlands Regulations—Federal and Washington State:

National Research Council. (2001) Compensating for Wetland Losses Under the Clean Water Act. Washington DC: National Academy Press. Also available online at: www.nap.edu/books/0309074320/html/R1.html

Gaddie, Ronald K., Regens, James L. (2000). Regulating Wetlands Protection: Environmental Federalism and the States. Albany: State University of New York Press. Includes discussion on the relationship between states and the federal government in relation to wetlands management and regulation, plus suggestions for improving the implementation process.

Braddock, Theda. (1995). Wetlands: An Introduction to Ecology, the Law and Permitting. Rockville, MD: Government Institutes. Attempts to inform both the wetlands scientist and real estate developer with chapters on the politics, classification and delineation, permits, penalties, enforcement, litigation and defenses, plus a "Table of Authorities" of statutes and cases.

Kusler, Jon A. et al. (1993) State Wetland Regulation: Status of Programs and Emerging Trends. Berne, N.Y.: Assn. of State Wetland

Managers. Focus on states' regulations and special provisions, includes detailed entry for 50 states; Washington's entry especially complete. The Conservation Foundation. (1988). Protecting America's Wetlands: An Action Agenda; The Final Report of the National Wetlands Policy Forum. Washington, DC: Conservation Foundation. Representing state and federal governments, conservationists and industry the report recommends policy change, program improvements, private stewardship and financing.

Washington State Department of Ecology. (1994) Wetland regulations guidebook. Olympia: The Dept. With chapters on how wetlands are regulated; federal and state regulations, laws and policy; and relevant agencies.

McMillan, Andrew. (1998). How Ecology regulates wetlands: an introduction to regulatory authority, wetland definitions and delineation, wetland characterization and function assessment, wetland mitigation, buffers and more Washington (State): Washington State Dept. of Ecology. Washington State. Department of Ecology. (1990). Model Wetlands Protection Ordinance. Olympia: The Dept.

Economics

Scodari, Paul F. (1990). Wetlands Protection: The Role of Economics. Washington, DC: Environmental Law Institute. The focus of this book is on identifying, developing and implementing reforms to increase efficiency of wetlands policy.

Marsh, Lindell L., Porter, Douglas R., Salvesen, David A. (Eds.) (1996). Mitigation Banking: Theory and Practice. Washington, DC: Island Press. Nine chapters and eight case studies exploring issues of mitigation banking—an idea to foster the goal of "no net loss" of wetlands by selling "credits" of new or protected wetlands in exchange for "debits" of destroyed wetlands.

History and Social Implications:

Biblett, Rodney James. (1996). Postmodern Wetlands: Culture, History, Ecology. Edinburgh: Edinburgh University Press. "The book analyses wetlands in relation to aesthetics and philosophy, cities and human psychology, mythology and narrative and medical, military, social and conservation history."
