What's Near Campus

Exploring the Neighborhood

The University of Washington is located in the University District of Seattle. We have two shopping and dining areas within walking distance of campus: University Village and the Ave,

University Village

An upscale outdoor shopping center, "U Village" has plenty of name brand (Coach, Anthropologie, J. Crew, Apple, Crate and Barrel) and boutique shopping, as well as casual dining, a grocery store (QFC) and a pharmacy (Bartell). The grocery store has a large kosher selection. To get there, head east (downhill) from McMahon to Montlake Boulevard, and then cross the street and turn left. U Village is on your right. Restaurants here range from moderate to high end. Johnny Rockets has the quickest service. There are two different Starbuck's in this center, if you like branded coffee.

The Ave

West of campus is The Ave, where you can find a variety of ethnic and traditional American food, bars, bookstores, small shops and movie theatres. Graduate students more often go to the Ave to eat than to University Village—it's usually quicker and cheaper—but there are also some good restaurants here as well.

Bookstores

University Bookstore

4326 University Way NE

Although this is the students' campus bookstore (in the basement), there are two floors of “general” books. One of the best general and independent bookstores in Seattle.

The Magus

1408 NE 42nd Street

A used bookstore with over 70,000 titles.

Twice Sold Tales

4501 University Way NE

Another good used bookstore.

Bulldog News

4208 University Way NE

Good international newspaper selection.

Food a bit farther away . . .*Ivar's Salmon House

401 NE Northlake Way

This restaurant is known for its salmon and is more like a cab ride away.

Agua Verde (Mexican)

1303 NE Boat Street

South of the medical school campus, this is waterfront dining, even if a longer walk.

Tempero de Brasil (Brazilian)

5628 University Way NE

A good walk north on University Way but well recommended.

Cedars on Brooklyn

4759 Brooklyn Avenue NE

One block west of University Way and several blocks north.
