

ICSTLL-39 Welcome!

Welcome to the 39th International Conference on Sino-Tibetan Linguistics.

On the back of this page you will find a map and directions for getting from the hotels to the conference sites on campus. Please sign in as soon as possible in order to get your program, name badge, and abstract book. (See below for information on signing in.)

Thursday events

The pre-conference workshop is from 3:00 - 6:00 pm in Gowen Hall Room 1A (Location #6 on the map). All conference attendees are welcome to participate.

The informal welcome reception is from 6:00 - 9:00 pm in Gowen Hall Room 1A (Location #6 on the map). Please come for light refreshments and socializing.

You can sign in for the conference from 2:00 - 9:00 pm in Gowen Hall Room 1B (Location #6 on the map), next to the workshop and reception room. If possible, please sign in on Thursday evening to keep the lines from getting too long on Friday morning.

You can find many inexpensive restaurants on University Way between 41st and 45th Street (see the map on the back), or ask at the hotel desk for food recommendations.

Friday events

The conference begins promptly at 9:00 am in the Walker-Ames Room on the second floor of Kane Hall (Location #5 on the map).

You can sign in for the conference beginning at 8:00 am outside the Walker-Ames Room on the second floor of Kane Hall (Location #5 on the map). Please plan to sign in early so that we can begin the conference promptly at 9:00.

Conference sign-in will also be available Saturday and Sunday mornings from 8:00 am in Kane.

KEY

- 1) College Inn Hotel
- 2) University Inn
- 3) Watertown Inn
- 4) University Tower Hotel
- 5) Kane Hall (main conference site is on the second floor)
- 6) Gowen Hall

There are many entrances to campus. The red arrows on the map indicate two convenient entrances. Kane Hall (#5), the main conference site, is a large brick building on Red Square, an open brick plaza.