

KAYAK CLUB

Autumn 2009

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, DEPARTMENT OF RECREATIONAL SPORTS PROGRAMS

The University Kayak Club at the UW is a registered student organization helping members pursue the sports of kayaking and canoeing. The Kayak Club is oriented towards whitewater and ocean kayaking. Those new to the sport are encouraged to join and people of all skill levels are welcome. The club provides opportunities for members to enjoy different paddling styles and adventures. There are over 15 white water runs within a 90 minute drive from Seattle. Many nearby islands, especially the San Juan Islands, provide an abundance of areas for sea kayakers to explore.

HOW TO JOIN:

- If you are unsure about joining, come to a pool session where you can meet people and get an orientation to the club and kayaking.
- If you are sure you would like to join, or are renewing your membership, go to the HUB ticket office to sign paperwork, pay club dues and be issued a membership card to be validated at a pool session.

MEMBERSHIP PRICES: Autumn 2009-Summer 2010

For Kayak use on Lake Washington:

- $20 for students/IMA members
- $27-41 sliding scale for non-IMA members (dependent on time of year)
