

SAILING TEAM

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, DEPARTMENT OF RECREATIONAL SPORTS PROGRAMS

The Sailing Team is a club sport at the University of Washington in Seattle and a member of the Intercollegiate Sailing Association (ICSA). The UW is a part of the Northwest District (NWICSA). The UW Sailing Team regularly practices at Sail Sand Point on Lake Washington. We are currently one of the top ranked club teams in the country. Any UW undergraduate student may participate on the team, regardless of experience. Members of the team include experienced national competitors and novice racers. The UW Sailing Team competes year round, mainly on weekends. Many regattas are held at schools in the Northwest District, but the team also travels all over the country. National Championships are held every year, and the UW has a history of qualifying to compete in these events. Most regattas are sailed double handed on Flying Juniors (FJ's).

Club dues are $30 annually. There is also an $80 fee for use of Sail Sand Point boats.
