

JSIS Japan Studies Program MA Completion Form 2014–2015
TWO RESEARCH PAPERS + ORAL EXAM, page 1

Student name _____

Planned last quarter _____

Students fulfill the JSIS Japan Studies MA final paper(s) and oral exam requirements in part by writing two Research Papers or an Essay of Distinction. These requirements are detailed in the Japan Studies Handbook for Graduate Students. Further information is available from the Graduate Program Coordinator (GPC) and the Graduate Program Adviser (GPA, Paula Milligan). Please complete the sections of this form as you fulfill the various requirements in your final year; the form should remain in your file with the GPA except when you borrow it to obtain the required signatures for the various steps in the process.

I. First Research Paper

Due: 8th Friday of Autumn Quarter in final year

Research Papers originate from courses you have taken, and they must be on different topics, written for different members of the JSIS Japan faculty, and at least one must have been written for a member of the JSIS Japan faculty with a graduate appointment. First obtain a faculty member's permission to rework a class paper to fulfill the Research Paper requirement (Step 1), then revise the paper and have the faculty member sign again to indicate the final version fulfills this requirement (Step 2).

ESSAY OF DISTINCTION + ORAL EXAM

The Essay of Distinction is only for students who have prior approval from two JSIS Japan faculty members willing to work with them (indicated by the signatures in section 1 below) in developing a very rigorous research paper. Typically 35-50 pages (10,000-15,000 words), an Essay of Distinction presents a clear research question and statement of hypothesis/argument, and draws on Japanese-language sources. Before choosing this option, you should consult with the GPA and the GPC about additional requirements and expectations.

I. Approval of Hypothesis & Supervisory Committee Due: 8th Friday of Autumn Quarter in final year
Hypothesis:

I approve this hypothesis and agree to serve on the supervisory committee for this Essay of Distinction:

II. Oral Presentation of Essay

Due: Final quarter

You will present your Essay at a Japan Colloquium event early in your final quarter. This feedback will help you in preparing the final draft of your Essay. You will be consulted in scheduling this presentation.

III. Submission of Essay

Due: 8th Friday of final quarter

Submit two copies of your Essay of Distinction to the Office of Student Services by 3:00 p.m. on Friday of the eighth week of the quarter in which you intend to complete the degree requirements. These copies will be distributed to your supervisory committee members. When they approve the Essay, the oral exam will be scheduled.

IV. Oral Exam

Due: Final week of final quarter

You will be consulted in the scheduling of the exam.
