

2019 Latina Health Symposium: Su Salud Mental También Cuenta

Promoting Mental Health Understanding and Cultivating Acceptance Among the Latina Community

The annual Latina Health Symposium provides a forum for participants to come together to learn and discuss health-related topics that impact Hispanic/Latina women. This year's theme will focus on Mental Health among the Latina community and their families. Speakers will cover topics such as current mental health data, adult & children's programs, and immigration concerns affecting mental health. We hope you can join us!

Who should attend:

- Public health professionals
- Lay health workers (promotores)
- Clinicians
- Social service professionals
- Community health workers and educators
- Outreach workers
