

Course evaluation

1. What aspects of the class most contributed to your learning of phonology?

- listening to lectures
- reviewing lecture slides on web site
- worksheets in class
 - working on your own
 - working in a group
- comments on student work at whiteboard
- homework
 - working through problems on your own
 - working through problems in a team
 - feedback on homework
- textbook
- non-textbook readings
- exams
- other (specify)

2. What would have helped you learn more about phonology?

3. What aspects of the class most contributed to your learning about writing in linguistics?

- writing the homework
- corrections to homework
- lectures and handouts on writing

- sample homework write-ups
- textbook
- peer reviewing
- other (specify)

4. What else would have helped you improve as a writer of linguistics? (e.g. chance to rewrite a homework? selecting term paper option?)

5. I am considering not posting the lecture slides on the class web site in the future.

- that's fine; I never looked at the posted lecture slides anyway
- that's fine; I took all the notes I needed to in class anyway
- that's a bad idea; the slides went by too fast in class and I needed to look at them later
- that's a bad idea; I came to class regularly and not taking notes allowed me to pay attention better
- that's a bad idea; I rarely came to class and relied on the posted slides to keep up with what was going on in class

6. Do you have any other ideas on how this course could be improved?
