

DIVERSITY WEEK 2015

FEBRUARY 23-27

Schedule of Events

LUNCH SESSION 12:30-1:20

Monday, February 23rd ROOM 119

EBOLA AND HOW RACE AND SOCIOECONOMIC FACTORS HAVE AFFECTED TREATMENT

Speakers from UW Law's Barer Institute and risk communications specialist, Seattle and King County Public Health Department.

Tuesday, February 24th ROOM 119

PROBLEMS AND SOLUTIONS-RECOGNIZING GENDER DISCRIMINATION IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION

A panel discussion regarding what, if any, forms of discrimination women are likely to experience as attorneys and how to handle such situations.

Wednesday, February 25th 25TH ROOM 119

AND JUST WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

Seattle Police Chief Kathleen O'Toole (confirmed), Seattle Police Monitoring Team member Ron Ward (or designee) to discuss law enforcement in Seattle's communities of color.

LATE AFTERNOON SESSION 3:30-5:15

Monday, February 23rd ROOM TBA

PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS AND PUBLIC DEFENDERS PERSPECTIVES ON THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM FROM PERSONS OF COLOR

Speakers from the Seattle City Attorney's Office, King County Prosecutor's Office and Associated Counsel for the Accused.

Tuesday, February 24th ROOM 117

THEFT, HOW ETHNIC MINORITIES ARE EXPLOITED AND DEPRIVED OF INCOME

A panel discussion on how low income workers of color are deprived of wages, sponsored by Law and Business Association and the Latino Law Students Association.

Wednesday, February 25th ROOM 115

RIGHTS FOR THE DISABLED — ARE WE THERE YET?

A panel discussion sponsored by Washington Attorneys with Disabilities. Speakers include attorneys working at private law firms, large corporations and social services.

Need more information? Contact Professor William Covington; chair Diversity Week organizing committee at covinw@uw.edu

DIVERSITY WEEK 2015 FEBRUARY 23-27Schedule of Events *continuedLUNCH SESSION 12:30-1:20Thursday, February 26th ROOM 117CONSUMER RIGHTS OR HUMAN RIGHTS?
AN IDEOLOGICAL CONVERSATION
ABOUT THE ARLENE'S FLOWERS CASE

Speakers-Professor Terry Price, UW Law; Austin Nimocks, Alliance Defending Freedom; Kim Gunning, Assistant Attorney General and Michael Scott, (cooperating attorney, Arlene's Flowers case).

Friday, February 27th ROOM 117ANDREA RITCHIE-AUTHOR QUEER (IN) JUSTICE

Ms. Ritchie to speak about her recent her book, the law and its impact on diverse persons; CLE credits (pending).

LATE AFTERNOON SESSION 3:30-5:15Thursday, February 26th 1ST FLOOR WILLIAM GATES HALL1) DIVERSITY AND JUSTICE FAIR (3:30-5:00)

Visit informational tables and speak with representatives from Seattle based social justice organizations.

2) UNVEILING OF MARTIN LUTHER KING
PICTURES (4:30-5:30)

Speakers-Professor Brenda Williams and Bernie Kleina (photographer) followed by unveiling ceremony.

3) TGIT (Thank God It's Thursday Thursday; 5:30-7:00)

Enjoy beverages, southern style desserts and music from a local jazz group.

Friday, February 27th SAMUEL KELLY ETHNIC CULTURAL CENTER; 3931 BROOKLYN AVENUE NE1) NATIVE AMERICAN LAW STUDENTS ASSOCIATION SALMON DINNER AND BINGO