PART III. Lectures and Discussion Groups

One hour discussion groups will be scheduled between 11am-1:30pm (11am or 12:15 start). Following is a list of the three lectures and the discussion groups associated with them. Please review the lectures and the discussion dates carefully. The online registration form will ask you which lectures you plan to attend and also your top three choices for each discussion group topic for which you will register. Please consider your choices carefully; no shows and changes slow the process. If you will not be registering for discussion groups, you will be asked to indicate “None” for each. You will be contacted via email once we have assigned your registration.

Note for UW trainees located at FHCRC: there will be a limited number of discussion groups available at that location. Dates and times will be announced early June. To register for FHCRC discussion groups, you MUST first reserve a space with them before completing the online BRI registration form for UW credit. The schedule of FHCRC groups will be posted early June at http://www.fhcrc.org/education/courses/research_ethics/.
